THE PRESIDENT'S NOTES

August 1993

Dear Friends of Genealogy,

As summer ends and the fall season begins in earnest, I trust that all of you plan to come and support our organization with renewed zeal. We have exciting programs scheduled for the remainder of the year.

September - Col. John Mitchell will discuss "How to Research a Military Regiment."

October - Dr. George Shannon, Director of the Louisiana Exhibit Museum, will discuss "Caddo Indian Folkways."

November - Get your materials together for a day of microfilming to preserve your records. Delight Nelson will have a special project for members only.

December - Christmas Party Time

Our lessons have been discontinued for the time being so our meetings will begin at 1:30 pm in the Eaves Room.

Please remember to get your group sheets to Jimmle Jean Bowman. If we have too many sheets for the first book, we will put them in the next one.

The Journal always needs articles. Please help by making your contributions. We need you! Remember, this is your organization, and you get out of it what you put into it!

FOG would like to express condolences to Mary Goldsmith who recently lost her husband. Mary has been on the telephone committee for several years.

See you at the meetings.

Sincerely,

Jane Leslie Newberry

KEACHIE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH DeSoto Parich, Louisiana

About 1848, the Bethel Presbyterian Church was organized by the Red River Presbytery in a log schoolhouse, located approximately 15 miles south of Shreveport. This was the first frame house of worship erected west of the Mississippi River.

In 1856, the building was sold and the church moved to its present site, and the erection of the present building was completed in 1858. In 1859, the Presbytery changed the name to Keachi Presbyterian Church.

Among the charter members in Keachi was a Mrs. Nancy BONES GAMBLE, whose husband originally purchased "from the general-government the land on which the town of Mansfield now stands, and perhaps it was at the instigation of his wife that he presented five lots to build churches on in that place to five denominations, the Presbyterians being the one who, by and by, never got what he gave." (TAKEN FROM THE SESSION BOOK OF THE CHURCH).

In origin, the vestibule of the church was an open porch, and in the back of the sanctuary between the double entrance doors was a raised slave gallery. After the War Between the States, for a number of years, this gallery was used as a choir loft, but was removed around the turn of the century. The open porch was enclosed as it is today.

Basically, the church remains in its original state. The benches are hand-hewn and have only been cleaned and varnished. The chairs on the pulpit are among the first used in the church. On the right is a pump organ which still plays, but is no longer used.

The light fixtures are also the original and have only been silvered and converted from coal oil to electricity. The wood burning stoves have been removed and central gas heaters installed.

The Bible on the rostrum, which is still used today, was given to the church in 1856 by David CRESWELL and has been rebound only. The original cover is on display in the showcase in the vestibule.

The pictures in the vestibule are of Reverend and Mrs. Edwar EELLS, the first "resident" pastor of the church, who arrived in Keachi in January, 1859.

The sofa located in the church has recently been recovered and returned to its original location. The bell in the steeple was installed when the church was erected and has called members to church for well over 150 years.

With the exception of fresh paint and carpet, the church remains much the same as when the first members came to worship in 1858.

SOME INTERESTING OLD FACTS ABOUT ARKANSAS

Timothy FLINT visited Arkansas in 1830, and jotted down facts he considered interesting.

Fred W ALLSOPP published these notes in 1931 calling the publication "Folklore of Romantic Arkansas" Volume 1. The following information is taken from Chapter IV of that publication.

When Timothy FLINT made his 1830 visit to Arkansas, he mentioned the following eighteen leading towns in Arkansas: Arkansas Post (the first settlement, now almost extinct); Harrisborough (now Harrisburg); Vilemont (never heard of now); Greenock (the county seat of Cross County from 1826 to 1836, but long since washed away by the Mississippi); Hempstead Court House (Washington); Lafayette Court House (now Lewisville); Jackson (Jacksonport); Miller Court House (now Texarkana); Jacob's Staff (he lost it); Helena; Scotia (named for John R Homer SCOTT); Acropolis (Arkopolis-Little Rock); Franklin (a former village in St. Francis County and now the name of a town in Izard County); Paraclifta (a ghost town); Corea Fabre (Camden); & Warm Springs (Hot Springs). Only three of these places retain their old names.

There are many legends about Arkansas towns; and the mere origin of the names of places, as of individuals, in interesting, especially to the antiquary. "None can care for literature in itself", said Robert Louis STEVENSON, "who do not take a special pleasure in the sound of names, and there is no part of the world where nomenclature is so rich, poetical, and humorous as the United States of America." Few states can compare with Arkansas in the singularity or picturesquencess of its place names. Many of them have been derived from queer sources. Some of them have been supplied by "savage, saint, and sage." Sometimes they have historical and even romantic significance. Indeed, one Arkansas town is named Romance. The names often seem to have originated by chance, and sometimes in jest. Indian names, the names of old forts, French, Spanish, and English nomenclature, biblical or ecclesiastical names, those of pioneers and the odd anglicization of foreign names, are all represented in Arkansas landmarks.

Those derived from the word Arkansas, include Arkansas City, Arkana, Arkadelphia, Arkinda, Arkla, Arkline, Texarkana, Moark, and Newark.

Those with suffixes of borough, boro, or the German burg (meaning homestead or market place) are Hillsborough, Jonesboro, Lockesburg, New Edinburg, Mountainburg, Newburg, Roseboro, Lunenburg, Hamburg, Wallaceburg, & Roseboro.

Towns with names bearing the French suffix "ville" are Batesville, Glenville, Fayetteville, Bentonville, Johnsville, Nashville, Maysville, Masonville, Jacksonville, Fallsville, Plummerville, Prattsville, Smithville, Wrightsville, & Yellville.

Those ending with "field" are Mansfield, Springfield, Barfield, Bellefield, & Redfield.

Scotch and Irich "Macs" are represented by McCaskett, McClelland, McCrory, McDougal, McFadden, mcFerrin, McGehee, McHue, McJester, McKamie, McNab, McNeil, McRae, & McPherson. Other "sons" are Edmonson, Emerson, Higginson, & Donaldson.

Self-styled "centers" are Center in Sharpe County, Center Hill, Centre Point, Center Ridge, Centerton, & Centerville.

Since Arkansas is noted for its fine springs of water, it is not surprising to find towns named Armstrong Springs, Hot Springs, Heber Springs, Eureka Springs, Black Springs, Sulphur Springs, Siloam Springs, Artesian, Baker Springs, Bog Springs, Nick Springs, Warm Springs, Whalen Springs, Mammouth Springs, & Ravenden Springs.

Among the names of foreign origin preceded by "de" are, Dewitt, De Queen, De Vall's Bluff, De View, De Tonti, De Ann, & DecRoche. Prefixed by "el" are El Central, El Dorado, & El Paso.

Not all the saints in the calendar are represented, but we find St. James, St. Charles, St. Joe, St. Francis, & St. Paul. There is also a Catholic settlement on Pigeon Roost Mountain, in Conway County, called St. Vincent, which has not been listed as a town.

Names ending in "ton" (or town) are Centerton, Hampton, Morristown, Nettleton, Charleston, Huntington, Morrilton, Morton, Slatington, Smithton, Princeton, Thornton, Trenton, Uniontown, Warrenton, Jamestown, Wharton, & Georgetown.

Minerals, ores, & mining gave rise to Mineral Springs, Bauxite, Silver, Sandtown, Sandy Bend, Magnet, Magnet Cove, Marble, Antimony, Lead Hill, White Cliffs, Stonewall, Step Rock, & Zinc.

Names derived from precious stones are Onyx, Topax, Jasper, Jade, & Opal.

Those derived from fruits, plants, & flowers are Peach Orchard, Tulip, Crabb Tree, Strawberry, Wild Cherry, Raspberry, Grape, Daisy, Violet Hill, Rosebud, Snowball, Magnolia, Roseland, Floral, Blossom, Flowery, & Lily.

Names compounded with "woods" and "downs" are Millwood, Traskwood, Woodberry, Hollywood, Ashdown, Greenwood, & Glenwood.

Those derived from "trees" include Maple, Firs, Walnut Hill, Walnut Corner, Walnut Ridge, Walnut Lake, Walnut Tree, Walnut Grove, Fairoaks, Hickory Plains, Hickoria, Hickory Ridge, Mulberry, Willow, Pine Bluff, Pine Grove, Black Oak, Cedarville, Cedar Glades, Holly Grove, Holly Springs, Hollywood, Poplar Grove, Piney, Pine City, Pine Tree, Pine Grove, Lone Pine, Marked Tree, Ash Flat, & Green Forest.

The Shreveport City Flag

Shreveport is one of the few cities of the United State having an official city flag. The idea was originated by Rupert PEYTON, of the Shreveport Journal editorial staff, and was laid before the Chamber of Commerce by him in 1934 when plans were being made for the Shreveport Centennial Celebration of 1935. The idea was enthusiastically received and at once referred to the civics division headed by L. A. MAILHES. a general flag committee was appointed with J. Fair HARDIN as chairman. the members of the committee were: L. A. MAILHES, Rupert sPEYTON, Mrs. Amanda NETTLES, Seymeur VAN OS, Mrs. Katie OGBOURNE, John HOWAT, George W. HARDY, H. C. WALKER, F. P. KLINGENSMITH, Miss Em MOORE, Mrs. A. C. WHITTINGTON, Mrs. J. K. WALKER, Mrs. Donald DICKSON, Jimmie SIMMONS, T. R. HUGHES, J. W. BAKER, Mrs. Randall HUNT, Dr. Fred RATZBURG, Victor MAYNARD, T. Willard JONES, Walter B. RANDALL, Cecil MORGAN, John A. SEWALL, JR., Mrs. B. H. GRIMES, Mrs. Agnes HENDRICK and Waldo MOORE.

The committee decided to conduct a contest and offered a $50 cash prize for the person submitting the most appropriate design for a city flag. The contest was arranged by the folowing committee: Aaron SELBER, chairman; Sam D. BOGAN; Leonard J. DANIELS; Mrs. C. R. CALDWELL; Mrs. W. E. WALLACE; E. W. JONES and Mrs. Frank J. MELETON. Publicity for the contest was handled by Rupert PEYTON, chairman; C. A. HAZEN, Fort PEARSON, L. M. SEPAUGH, Dwight NORTHUP, Jack MEREDITH and Mrs. Isadore LIEBER. Those selected to pass on the designs submitted were Dewey SEMDAL, chairman, Beattie JOHNSON, Mrs. Van Lear LEARY, Mrs. J. R. PARTON, C. R. MINOR, Mis Elizabeth COOK, Goerge W. HARDY, John Mc Williams FORD, T. C. DAWKINS, Charles D. EVANS and C. Bickham DICKSON.

The result of the contest was the selection by the committee of the design submitted by Stewart G. DAVIS, Shreveport artist and World War Veteran.

The flag designed by Mr DAVIS is a barred tricolor with a heraldic device on the center bar. the three colors of the background, French blue, white and golden yellow, are taken from the flags of the three countries which have owned Louisiana-Blue from the flag of France, white from the American, and golden yellow from the flag of Spain. The white bar bears a shield of blue and white divided by a diagonal band of red. The color shades are the same as those of the national flag. The red band is surmounted by three white magnolia blossoms. the triple use of the official state flower signifies the importance of Shreveport in the Tri-State area. The upper right hand portion of the shield has a field of blue with 18 white stars, in recognition of the fact that Louisiana was the 18th state to enter the Union. The lower left hand portion of the shield bears conventionalized ermine tips on a field of white. The ermine tips appear in the coat of arms of the Shreve family and are used in the city flag in honor of Captain Henry Miller SHREVE for whom the city was named. From the top of the shield a pelican, symbolical of the State of Louisiana, looks down with pride upon the insignia of the city. The lower half of the shield in surrounded by a wreath of cotton leaves, emblematic of the importance of Shreveport as a cotton center. Crossing a portion of the cotton leaf wreath is a ribbon scroll bearing the words "City of Shreveport-1835"

Scott Wilkinson was born at Coushatta, in Red River Parish, February 5, 1895 and was about five years of age when the family moved to Shreveport. Since the war, Capt. Wilkinson has practiced law as a member of the firm Wilkinson, Lewis and Wilkinson. The preceding information was abstracted from the book by Chambers, Henry E.; A History of Louisiana, the American Historical Society, Inc., c 1925.

Do you know?

The first Caddo Courthouse was located in what is now De Soto Parish. The legislature in creating Caddo Parish in 1838 designated the house of Thomas Wallace located approx 2.5 mi NWLY on the south shore of Wallace Lake the first seat of Justice. HISTORY OF THE KENNEDY-CALLEN-ARMSTRONG FAMILIES continued from Vol. 5 number 2:

Hugh E KENNEDY's first wife was Elizabeth SIMPSON who had Harvey for a middle name. They were married in Sumner County SC. She was born on board a vessel when her parents were coming from Belfast, Ireland to America in July of 1784.

Possibly two of Hugh E KENNEDY's children, vis: Nancy Simpson KENNEDY, was born there 19 Feb 1811 and Elizabeth Harvey on 7 Oct 1812, then they came to AL and settled in what was later Dallas County. Both the SIMPSON and HARVEY families in Scotland were said to have been celebrated. As to the HARVEYs I do not know. But all my life I knew that Uncle Hugh KENNEDY received his middle name from his mother, and that he named his second daughter Elizabeth Simpson, in honor of his mother. SIMPSON like KENNEDY is Scotch in origin. They were originally of Linlithgow, Scotland. In looking over history, I found this which I find in connection with Sir John KENNEDY, vis: The hitherto all powerful Bishop CHRISTON, who was shown of his honor and chancelorship was bestowed on James KENNEDY, a lineal decendant of Earl John KENNEDY. Seems that SIMPSON and KENNEDY clans were powerful in Scotland, continued in Ireland, and even reached over to the wild woods of SC and united Hugh E KENNEDY in marriage with Elizabeth Harvey SIMPSON. Scotch were clan livers and families united by blood or marriage received closely associated. Now this Elizabeth Harvey SIMPSON was the great grandmother, through her daughter, Nancy KENNEDY CALLENs of Mrs HARELL and Mrs. DENSLER of Selma, AL. So I am glad to tell them one reason why the SIMPSON race is and forever will be celebrated, and that is because Sir James Young SIMPSON was of the family. He was born at Rathgate, Lithingow, Scotland, and was the first man to use an anesthetic in child birth. He at first used sulphuric ether, and it was he who discovered chloroform superiotity over ether and introduced it in hospitals for wounded soldiers. They built a large bronze statue in his likeness and set it up in the streets of Edinburg. They made him a Knight. These eitht children of Hugh E KENNEDY and Elizabeth Harvey SIMPSON were:

Nancy Simpson KENNEDY born 19 Feb 1811 SC Elizabeth Harvey KENNEDY born 7 Oct 1812 AL Mary Ann KENNEDY born 23 Aug 1814 AL Jane Minerva KENNEDY born 18 Jan 1816 AL Thomas Jackson KENNEDY born 17 Apr 1818 John KENNEDY born 1820 Hugh Simpson KENNEDY born 17 Feb 1822 William KENNEDY born 2 Oct 1823

Hugh E KENNEDY lost his wife, Elizabeth Harvey SIMPSON, 24 Jan 1840, when in her fifty-sixth year. Then one month and 19 days later on 14 Feb 1840, his son, Thomas Jackson died. After two years and four months passed after death of his wife, Hugh E KENNEDY married again on 2 May 1842 to Mrs. Nancy B. MARTIN. A record of this marriage can be found in the Selma, AL court house. He only lived one year and five months after his second marriage. He died 25 Oct 1843. No child by this marriage. The eldest daughter of Hugh E KENNEDY and Elizabeth SIMPSON KENNEDY, Nancy Simpson KENNEDY, married John K CALLEN. Seems to have been the tie that bound the wandering clan together. It was she they wrote to and sent their picture. She passed them on to her daughter, Nancy Kennedy CALLEN, who is now Mrs. N.C. DENSLER of Selma AL. She has pictures of Hugh E KENNEDY's family, his letters and a lock of his hair. She also treasures letters from Jane Minerva KENNEDY who married Robert McGough ARMSTRONG. was this beloved sister, Nancy Kennedy CALLEN, who in 1867 with her son Lafayette Alexander CALLEN, who later became the father of Mrs. DENSLER, visited her nephew, Harris H. CALLEN in Sabine Parish at the old BECK home. Also her brother, Hugh Simpson KENNEDY, her sister Jane Minerva, nee Mrs. Robert McGough ARMSTRONG. The two sisters were very beautiful. Mrs. CALLEN was 56 and Aunt Jane 51.

Jane Minerva KENNEDY ARMSTRONG died at her home in Sabine Parish LA on 27 Aug 1884. She was attended by her brother-in-law, my father, Dr. R.L. ARMSTRONG 1st. And my own mother stood by her till she died. They said of her, "She is beautiful even in death and she was almost 78 years of age".

William KENNEDY died at Cuero TX 22 Nov 1893 at 70 years of age. Nancy Simpson KENNEDY CALLEN outlived them all. She died at 86 years of age on 14 Jun 1897 at the home of her son Richard Cater CALLEN. Hugh Simpson KENNEDY died at his home in Pleasant Hill, LA 10 Aug 1900 aged 78 years, 6 months and 23 days. John KENNEDY must have been 48 years old when he died. Of the death of Mary Ann KENNEDY, who was Mrs. WALKER, we do not know. But we do know that her beautiful sister, Jane Minerva KENNEDY ARMSTRONG, named her eldest daughter Mary Ann, in her honor. I have no record of Hugh E KENNEDY's second daughter who was Elizabeth Harvey KENNEDY, but she married a CALLEN and I see in the KENNEDY will that she did.

Someone said of the old CALLEN, KENNEDY, ARMSTRONG Church in AL, known as the Valley Creek Church, that it was "Reformed Presbyterian Community Church", and originally had eleven charter members. That name certainly set me back. It might do to use the word reform in describing a community, but having a most intimate acquaintance with some of those charter members and their sons and daughters, I am of the opinion that the word "reform" could not be connected with them, for when a Blue Stocking Presbyterian was religious, there was absolutely nothing left to reform.

Take for instance, James Harrison ARMSTRONG, the leader of that covered wagon caravan which left AL for LA in 1847. All devout members of Valley Creek Church. In spite of the fact at least 20 babies were crying for home and rest, he stopped the caravan of harrassed mothers and weary travelers at noon each Saturday so that all might fully prepare to "rest from labor on the Sabboth Day". Consequently the comparatively short journey from Summerfield to the tents of the Beulah Camp grounds in Sabine Parish, where they rested awhile, took two whole months and buried one baby by the wayside. In 1815, the KENNEDYs were the richest land and slave owners in all AL for they came to Moores Bluff in 1797. Hugh E KENNEDY left a will, which went far to prove that he was an unusally worth while ancestor; first because he twice asked that all his honest debts be paid, secondly he made such a fair settlement on his wife. Men the world over who leave large families by a first wife so often creep out the back door of life leaving a childless second wife unprotected by a will.

The will is as follows:

JI, Hugh KENNEDY, of the county of Dallas, of the state of Alabama, being of sound mind, tho infirm of body, wishing greatly to settle my worldly affairs, to do full justice, and so far as I am able and in my power to secure peace and harmony among the members of my family after my death, hereby make this my last will and testament.

"In the first place of all I desire that my just debts be paid, just as soon as it is possible by my executors.

"Secondly, I give and begueath to my wife, Nancy B. KENNEDY during her natural life only, the tract of land on which I now reside known as the SW1 of the NE1 and the SE1 of the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ and the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ all the section 13 township 18 range 10, containing 120 acres more or less. Also one of my negro girls named Harriet and her increase which shall revert to my estate and be equally divided and distributed among my eight heirs, then in being according to the law of descent and distribution of the state of AL. I also give my wife absolutely one set of bedroom furniture, one cow and calf, to be selected by herself, one year's supply of corn and meal for herself and her servant, one side saddle, all the fowls of the place, and provided she continue to reside on the place, \$1000.00 in cash. I have already provided for my sons, John and William by giving them my mills and all the lands surrounding them. The rest of the property and estate of what-so-ever kind, including amounts by sale or otherwise, except the property I gave my son, Hugh KENNEDY more than the

"After the payment of my furst debts I give and bequeath to my children, not already provided for, who are Hugh Simpson KENNEDY, Nancy KENNEDY CALLEN, Mary Ann WALKER, Eliza KENNEDY CALLEN and Jane Minerva KENNEDY ARMSTRONG, in equal parts to each, except if Robert McGough ARMSTRONG, should insist on being credited by certain receipts, which I gave him, and for which I have already given him credit. Then, in such case, the amount of said receipts, or whatever part that he insists on as his credit, or any note or notes I hold against him shall be deducted from his wife's (my dear Jane) part of the estate.

"My sons-in-law who may be indebted to me or my estate by note or otherwise are to account to my representative for all indebtedness.

"All my property not already bequeathed, I hereby authorize my executors, or such of them as may act to sell all such liens and places as a majority of these interested may request. They may sell at private sale or public sale as a majority of those interested may desire. I however, stipulate that my houseboy, Johnnie and his wife, Mary, and their children shall in no event be separated, and if sold, shall be sold together, families be not separated.

"I hereby appoint John KENNEDY, my son, and John K CALLEN, my son-in-law, executors of this my last will and testament. In witness hereof, I hereby set my hand on this, the twenty-ninth day of September 1843."

Signed: Hugh KENNEDY

In a letter written to Eliza Jane KENNEDY (Mrs. E.J. CATHRAN), written in March, 1935, by her cousin Thomas J KENNEDY who was District Clerk of DeWitt County, Cuero, TX, he stated that he remembered seeing Aunt Nancy, Harris CALLEN, Aunt Jane (Robert McGough ARMSTRONG's wife) and Uncle Hugh KENNEDY. That was about the year 1867, and was sending a letter Eliza Jane had written him to his cousin William Hamilton ARMSTRONG at Many, LA. Aunt Jane Minerva ARMSTRONG's only living son. He died 30 Oct 1934, aged 78 years.

Harris CALLEN bought the old home and plantation of a local merchant, Mr. BECK, on the high road near the old Pisgah Church. He married a Miss HORN. Doubtless the grave of John KENNEDY, Uncle of Harris CALLEN, his wife and daughter Jane and son John, Jr. can be found in the old Pisgah burial ground.

Jane Minerva KENNEDY ARMSTRONG, wife of Robert McGough ARMSTRONG, took Jane and John KENNEDY, children of her brother, John KENNEDY, Sr and brought them up. Jane married a Mr. PIERCE of Marthaville, LA.

From my father, Dr. R.L. ARMSTRONG's family Bible, I copy his record of the marriages in his father, James Harrison ARMSTRONG's family as two married KENNEDYs. Robert McGough ARMSTRONG married Jane Minerva KENNEDY in 1835 in Dallas County AL. Mary Randolph Harrison ARMSTRONG married James WOODS in Dallas co AL in 1836. Thomas Alexander ARMSTRONG married Elizabeth McGEE, his cousin in Dallas co AL in 1842. Dr. Resin Laurence ARMSTRONG married Cynthia Loraine REED in Dallas co in 1845. Agnes McWhorter ARMSTRONG married Hugh Simpson KENNEDY in Dallas co AL in 1846. James Crittenden ARMSTRONG, M.D. married Elizabeth STEPHENS in Sabine Parish LA in 1854. Cynthia Loraine REED ARMSTRONG died in 1857. Dr. R.L. ARMSTRONG then married Virginia Andrewine PULLEN in Sabine parish LA in 1858. The "Harrison" in Mary Randolph Harrison KENNEDY's name came from her paternal grandmother, Mary Randolph HARRISON who was the granddaughter of Benjamin HARRISON and Peyton RANDOLPH of Virginia. She married Capt. William Hamilton ARMSTRONG of the Pennsylvania line in the Revolution in 1783. William Henry HARRISON, the President, was a first cousin of Mary Randolph HARRISON. From her 10th month until the end of her long life, 5 Sep 1925, when she was 78 years old, Mary Randolph Harrison KENNEDY lived in Sabine Parish, LA. She married Mr. Noah MAINS of Manu, LA a good honest man with a fine war record. They had two sons, Robert who died young, and William MAINS who raised a fine bunch of children near Pleasant Hill, LA.

Here is a record of the Hugh Simpson KENNEDY and Agnes McWhorter ARMSTRONG family record as it is kept by their only living son, Hugh Hamilton KENNEDY, of Pleasant Hill, LA. Hugh S KENNEDY was the father of 11 children, twins who died in infancy unnamed, about the year 1849 are not listed. Hugh Simpson KENNEDY, born Dallas co AL 19 Feb 1822; Agnes McWhorter ARMSTRONG, born Dallas co AL 7 Dec 1829. They married in Dallas co on 21 May 1846 by Rev. William KING. who was in charge of Presbyterian Church in Pleasant Valley, the Valley Creek Church built in 1819. The first child of this couple was Mary Randolph Harrison KENNEDY who was born 5 Mar 1847 AL & married Noah MAINS; Elizabeth Simpson born 24 Dec 1855 LA & married Rev. W.H. BASS; James Harrison born 7 Jul 1852 & died young; Dr. William Robert born 15 Feb 1857 & married Carrie JACKSON of Benson, LA; Jane Emeline "Jenny" born 11 Aug 1858 & married Dr. J.E. MUMFORD; Hugh Hamilton born 29 Mar 1861 & married Betty Fisher SMITH: John Lawrence born 8 Oct 1863 & died young; Talula Alabama born 17 Jun & married J.B. BROWN Sr.; Agnes born 12 Feb 1870 & died unmarried.

Jane Emeline KENNEDY "Jenny" & Dr. James Everett MUMFORD were married at the home of H.S. KENNEDY in 1879. Their children are Leila Salome MUMFORD who married Ben RAMSEY.

Talula Alabama KENNEDY & husband J.B. BROWN, Sr. had 2 sons: Perry BROWN & Dr. J.B. BROWN, Dentist.

Georgia Roberts MUMFORD married Wren PATTERSON, Aida Agnes MUMFORD married Will D. GILVEN, Alma Christine MUMFORD married P.M. GADDIS, & Jenny Kennedy MUMFORD married John G. HUFFMAN.

Hugh Simpson KENNEDY bought a tract of land near Pleasant Hill, LA. He later sold his farm known as the "HAMPTON Place" and bought the old Andy WOODS home in suburbs of Old Pleasant Hill so his children could attend the Methodist PIERCE & PAYNE College located nearby. The Andy WOODS home, the CHILDRES colonial mansion and the David BLACKSHEAR home were the best H.S. KENNEDY was a prosperous merchant in Old Pleasant Hill until the Texas & Pacific R.R. coming in 1882 caused him to move and locate his home and business in the new town. His wife, Agnes McWhorter ARMSTRONG died 1 Dec 1896 and Hugh Simpson KENNEDY died 10 Aug 1900, aged 78 Hugh Hamilton KENNEDY is the only living son of Hugh Simpson KENNEDY. The name Hugh for his father and grandfather, the name HAMILTON for his mother's ancestors, the renowned HAMILTONs from England & Scotland. Hugh Hamilton KENNEDY's ancestors go 6 generations - (6th) Duke James Mitcheli HAMILTON & Lady Julia SKIPTON; (5th) Sir Thomas Alexander ARMSTRONG & the Lady Jane HAMILTON; (4th) Capt. William Hamilton ARMSTRONG & Mary Randolph HARRISON; (3rd) James Harrison ARMSTRONG & Mary McGOUGH; (2nd) Hugh Simpson KENNEDY & Agnes McWhorter ARMSTRONG; (1st) Hugh Hamilton KENNEDY & Betty Fisher SMITH.

I have read many books, letters & clippings from the decendants of Sir Thomas Alexander ARMSTRONG & The Lady Jane HAMILTON which clearly proved their claim of descent from the famous Duke of HAMILTON and BRANDON. One letter says "Sir Thomas Alexander ARMSTRONG, who married in Ireland the Lady Jane, daughter of the Duke of Hamilton, came to America and settled for a time near York, PA. Her tomb has engraved upon it the crude carving of the coat of arms of the HAMILTON family.

THE CONQUEST OF THE OLD SOUTHWEST Archibald Henderson Chap. III

The two streams of Ulstermen, the greater through Philadelphia, the lesser through Charleston, which poured into the Carolinas toward the middle of the century quickly flooded the back country. The former occupied the Yadkin Valley and the region to the westward, the latter the Waxhaws and the Anson County region to the northwest. The first settlers were known as the "Pennsylvania Irish," because they had first settled in Pennsylvania after migrating from the north of Ireland, while those who came by way of Charleston were known as the "Scotch-Irish." The former, who had resided in Pennsylvania long enough to be good judges of land, shrewdly made their settlements along the rivers and creeks. The latter, new arrivals, and less experienced, settled on thinner land toward the heads of creeks and water courses.

TIPS WORTH PASSING ON

(hints & tips from varying sources that may help us in our research)

Ms. Johnnie DEEN has written that she writes a genealogical column for her hometown paper called "Kinsearching". Send announcements & queries to Ms. DEEN at 8311 Winkler Drive #146, Houston TX 77017.

If you need help in New York state, send queries to Carolyn WEIDNER, 2206 W. Borden Road, Spokane WA 99204. Capitalize all surnames for her column carried in several NY papers.

If you are looking for the grave of a United States serviceman buried overseas, contact: Director of Operations & Finance, American Battle Monuments Commission, 3127 Pulaski Building, Washington, D.C. 20314. This commission is responsible for the construction & maintenance of American military cemeteries on foreign soil.

The 1820 & 1830 federal Wisconsin census are with those of Michigan & the Nevada census is included with Utah. The 1860 Wyoming census is in with Nebraska & the 1860 Colorado census is hidden in Kansas.

The War Between the States is "hot news" lately so perhaps a couple of addresses might help someone wanting to check up on an ancestor. The Daughters of Union Veterans, National Headquarters, 503 South Walnut, Springfield IL 62704 can help with men who served in the Union troops as well as members of the organization. For the Confederacy, The United Daughters of the Confederacy will send a copy of an ancestor for $5.00 or a copy of a member's papers for $3.00. The UDC Magazine will also run queries for $5.00 for 50 words (send queries to the magazine editor of the UDC Magazine). Address: 328 North Boulevard, Richmond VA 23220-4057 & make checks payable to Treasurer General.

The very first life insurance company in this country was established in Philadelphia in 1759 as "The Corporation for Relief of Poor & Distressed Presbyterian Ministers and of the Poor and Distressed Widows and Children of Presbyterian Ministers". What's more, it's still in business with a shortened (though less intriguing) name - "Presbyterian Minister's Fund". It is, in fact, the industry's world record-holder for longest continued existence.

The Indiana State Library has a cardfile of all IN marriages prior to 1850 in all counties. They will answer a specific query, such as a certain name in a particular book or county. Write the library at 140 N. Senate Avenue, Indianapolis IN 46204.

The University of Kansas will loan books, government documents, microfilm & filmed newspapers (except the last 2 years) on interlibrary loan. They have a large collection of KS papers. Write: Interlibrary Services, University of Kansas Libraries, Lawrence, Kansas 66045. (or perhaps our Shreve librarian can order a needed film).

A FAMILY HAIR WREATH

Hair wreaths were a fad of the early Federal Period that has now faded into obscurity. This unique kind of jewelry and wall ornaments was so popular in 1853 that a tea and coffee service with the entire surface covered with a network of stiffened and intricately plaited hairwork was exhibited at the Crystal Palace show in London, England.

Most hair wreath's were made at family gatherings, when each member contributed a lock or strand of hair. The names of these contributors were written down and attached to the back of the framed work.

After the War Between the States, hair wreaths were popular as mourning jewelry because so many young men were killed. Before the war, hair jewelry was the work of professionals. But by the mid-19th century, American women took up the making of hair jewelry. The hair was cleaned and stiffened before being made into jewelry designs. When the making of hairwork jewelry became a homecraft, it declined in quality.

(your editor thinks this is a wonderful old craft and would love to know more. Has anyone ever heard of this or has seen a piece of work?)

MARKET STREET, LOOKING NORTH, 1935

The "Catfish Hotel," the first primitive hostelry of early Shreveport days, is shown in the above group as it stood in 1837. The village of Shreveport, as it existed in 1836, before it was dignified with that name, is also shown.
