PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Dear Friends:

We have been busy these past few months recruiting people to help with "The Genie", and with the other committees necessary to keep the membership informed of what is happening. "The Genie" came together faster this quarter because of the nimble fingers of our typists, Ethel Krause Wanda Head, and Margie Marshall. Paul Reinowski is our printer. Thank you all for your help. However, we can always use help with other tasks. If any of our members have a few hours, or a day, around printing time, please call me, I'M sure we can use the time.

For those of you using the excellent reference material at the Shreve Memorial Library Genealogy Room, you will find a member of the organization to help. Mrs. Willie Farley is there almost every day. Mrs. Trenkin McClain is at the library almost every Sunday afternoon.

The year of celebrating the Shreveport Sesquicentennial Anniversary is almost over. As a fitting close to the year, we have asked Col. H. F. Means of Land's End Plantation to speak at our June 14 meeting to tell us about the involvement of the Mansfield area and Land's End in the Civil War.

The four Saturday seminar classes will start June 21, at the Shreve Memorial Library. The program is listed elsewhere in "The Genie". Mrs. Norma Pontiff Evans of Beaumont, Texas will present a workshop on "So You Want to Write Your Family History?" Mrs. Evans has published several family history books. "Pontiff Paths: 200 Years in Louisiana" is her third book. She is a member of the Southeast Texas Genealogical Society, and speaks before civic groups and genealogical societies. Mrs. Evans is the manager of a fabric store, "Ye Olde Sewing Shoppe". When I spoke with her in May, she was sewing dresses for her two teenage daughters. Mrs. Evans will do private research for interested clients. Mr. Evans is from West Virginia, and they consider this their area of expertise. He will assist in the presentation on July 12 at 2 P.M. at the Werner Park Memorial Building. The workshop is part of our summer seminar.

Our "Book Fair" will be Saturday, August 9 at Werner Park. Plan to attend. You may find some books to help you in your search.

The Executive Committee is trying to plan programs we feel will be of interest to you. If you have any suggestions of topics or have heard of a speaker of interest, please call me.

Sincerely,

Marguerite Loftin

NEWSPAPERS WITH GENEALOGICAL COLUMNS

by Fern Ainsworth
(With a lot of help from Damon Veach)

This article was promised to appear in the January Genie, but my list needed updating. I contacted Damon Veach, who had just published this data in the 1985 annual edition of LE RACONTEUR. Damon readily gave me permission to use the material in his article and, as his is updated, I shall use it.

Damon Veach is a well-known author and newspaper columnist. His column, Louisiana Ancestors, appears in The Baton Rouge Sunday Advocate, New Orleans Times Picayune-Sunday Edition, and Monroe News-Star World. Damon is equally well-known for his contributions to the cause of the Louisiana Archives. Through the organization, "LE COMITE DES ARCHIVES DE LA LOUISIANE", of which he is president. Much has been accomplished to further the goals of the archives. He is a staunch supporter of Ark-La-Tex Genealogy Association, and has helped us in many ways. We encourage our members to support the archives struggle by joining "LE COMITE". Dues are $15.00 per year.

"LE COMITE" has publications for sale, the list of which will be shown at the end of the Newspaper Lists.

TITLE: LUDWIG BOTTNER AND HIS SONS, THE BEGINNING OF THE BOTTNER FAMILY
IN AMERICAN, by Paula S. Felder

ORDER FROM: Historic Publications
300 Princess Anne Street
Fredericksburg, VA 22401

COST: $26.50 postpaid hardbound

For many years, researchers seeking to trace Ludwig Bottner's beginnings in colonial America assumed he was typical of German immigrants of his day. Now it seems that neither the time nor the place of his first known presence in South Carolina was typical. He was hardworking and ambitious, but seemed to place no priority on proximity to other Germans. Each time he moved he enlarged his land holdings, taking on his largest acquisition - a tract on the Broad River - when he was almost fifty. His descendants spread across the South and after 1880, beyond it. Today there are many Boatners. Perhaps they all began with this Ludwig.

by Mrs. Audrey B. Westerman & Mrs. Lee Verret

ORDER FROM: Audrey B. Westerman
707 Highway 304
Thibadoux, LA 70301

COST: $20.00 softbound

Prior to 1914 death records were not kept in the State of Louisiana. As a consequence, if the church did not record the burial (and some were NOT recorded), and if the family did not have a family Bible (and many Catholics DID NOT), the record was lost for researchers. This book contains two types of records. The first is the Death Notice used at the turn of the century. These were posted in public places to notify the community of a death and a funeral. The second type of record is the Funeral Invitation. The earliest of this type of record in this book is dated 1867, but they were in use in Louisiana much earlier than that. 252 pages, indexed.
