THE GENIE

THE GENIE is published quarterly. All members receive four issues for each year of membership. All material published in THE GENIE is compiled and contributed by our members. Queries are published free. Membership is not a requirement. Review of books are printed as time and space permit. Following review all books donated are placed on the shelves of the genealogical room of the Shreve Memorial Library or the lending library of the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association. THE GENIE invites exchange of periodicals with other genealogical-historical organizations publishing data of general interest. We regret that we cannot exchange with limited family organizations but invite them to send samples of their publications for a brief review since many of these family organizations are of a great value in information on the families covered by them. All members of the staff are volunteers.

PRESIDENT'S PAGE

Dear Friends:

May you all have a healthy, prosperous year. We are starting 1987 with many positive plans, and if all goes as planned, should have a very interesting year.

Your new slate of officers was nominated and elected at the December annual meeting. The installation ceremony was beautifully accomplished by Past President, Margery Wright. The celebration of our 30 + 1 anniversary followed. Jeannie Boyett and her committee are to be complimented. The tables looked lovely, as usual we had more than enough of all kinds of tasty christmas food. We all enjoyed the good will and fellowship.

We are planning a workshop in July, and the Book Fair in August. Joyce Bridges is also planning a cookbook, to be sold at the Book Fair=proceeds to be used to help purchase Pension Records for Shreve Memorial Library. All our members are asked to contribute family recipes.

The genealogical classes for beginners will be held in February and March.

Wanda Head has invited Beverly Smith, director of the Hubert S. Ford Museum near Homer, to present a program on Historic Claiborne Parish at our February 14 meeting. Rita Krouse will present the program in March. The topic will be the Germantown Settlement, and she will also give some pointers on getting started on researching German ancestors.

Priscilla Reinowski is always looking for material for The Genie. If you have any Bible records, old letters or family history you would like to share, please send them to the editor.

We hope your research is doing well. The desire or need to know where we came from is the mystery that keeps us searching. Our roots are the support system that give value to what we are recording for future generations.

HISTORY OF THE VANCE GUARDS

By John Ardis Manry

The first organized company to leave Bossier Parish was the Bossier Boys. It left Bellevue, the parish seat, 9 May 1861, and was mustered into State service at New Orleans. It went to Camp MOORE, near New Orleans, where they were drilled for about three weeks. On account of a controversy between Governor MOORE and the Secretary of War the company was mustered out of service and returned home to enter other companies, organized and to be organized. Thirty joined the Vance Guards.

Six companies, enrolling 800 men, were organized as speedily as possible. In view of the fact that the voting strength of the parish was but slightly over 700 at this time, the enlistment of 800 speaks eloquently for the loyalty of Bossier's beardless youth.

"On Monday, 23 September 1861, a barbecue was given by the citizens of Red Land—a large number of the men enlisting from that place and the surrounding country," wrote William H. SCANLAND, editor of the Bossier Banner, many years later.

"What a magnificent country was the Red Land settlement in 1861! Peopled by patriotic home-builders of sterling manhood and women of noble character and admirable domestic habits—they were a happy, industrious and prosperous community, ever ready to lend a helping hand to neighbor or country."

"Good men and citizens were the SWINDLES, EDENS, ALLENS, GARRETS, WYCHES, BOGGS, CAVETTS, HERRONS, CAMPBELLS, CRAWFORDS, WINGETS, SCOTTS, SPURLINS, SHAVERS, LYNNs, FRANKS, MARTINS, CASONS, COCHRANS, MATLOCKS, WALKERS, COVINGTONS, MADINGS, DAVIS, HOLLOWAYS, WALLACES, MC DONALDS, MATTISONS, WALDROPS, WINDSORS, FARRINGTONS, OWENS, O'DANIELS and many others" whose name the old editor could not remember after a lapse of more than 50 years.

The company went to Monroe, caught a train to Camp MOORE where a school of instruction had been set up. This camp had been hastily constructed and many of the Vance guards died, the first of whom was J. G. HARRIS.

On 9 March 1862, the Nineteenth Louisiana Infantry, CSA, was activated, and was composed of companies from northwest Louisiana as follows:

- Company A (Vance Guards), Captain R. R. TURNER; Bossier.
- Company B (Robin Greys), Captain Loudon BUTLER; Bossier.
- Company C (Claiborne Volunteers), H. A. KENNEDY; Claiborne.
- Company D (Claiborne Greys), Captain W.E. SCOTT; Claiborne.
- Company E (Keachi Warriors), Captain H.H. HAMM, DeSoto.
- Company F (Henry MARSHAL Guards), Captain J. M. HOLLINGSWORTH; DeSoto.
- Company G (Caddo Tenth), Captain Wesley P. WINANS, Succeeded by J. P. BRIDGES; Caddo.

Company H (DeSoto Creoles), Captain John H. SUTHERLIN, succeeded by Joshua LOGAN; De Soto.
Company K (Anacoco Rangers), Captain W.W. SMART; Sabine.

There was no Webster Parish at that time, it being created later from Claiborne and Bossier parishes.

The Nineteenth Regiment arrived at Corinth, Miss., where it was discovered the entire regiment was poorly armed "and had not a single cartridge, and none can be had in Memphis or Nashville."

On April 6-7, the Nineteenth became part of the Second Corps, First Division, in the Army of Mississippi, Colonel R. L. GIBSON was in command. The Confederates had concentrated 40,000 men at Corinth with a view of beating the Yankees under General U. S. GRANT before reinforcements under General BUELL could arrive to assist him. The first day of battle could have been a victory for the Rebels but they were decisively defeated the second day of the Battle of Shiloh, just north of Corinth, Miss., in Tennessee. It was a Confederate failure but not a Union Victory, each side being weakened by about 10,000 men.

Casualties in their first battle were heavy.

OLD SHADY GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY IN WINN PARISH

The Old Shady Grove Baptist Church Cemetery in Winn Parish had been neglected and abandoned until this summer when five descendants of the SOWERS Family concentrated their efforts in restoring and recording the graves and tombstones.

The original Shady Grove Baptist Church was built and the cemetery established in the 1850's in the mid-eastern part of Winn Parish. Located in an area now approximately 12 miles east of Winnfield on Highway 84 and four miles north, the old cemetery is now surrounded by deep forest land. Prior to the turn of the century, the congregation moved four miles north and the third church building was built on the present site. It is still standing and in use by the congregation.

According to June Sowers GREEN of Shreveport, La., one hundred or more graves are unmarked, many have plain boards for markers, and five or six are marked with pieces of petrified wood.

Inscriptions from graves with readable and permanent markers are given below. Anyone knowing the names and information as to others who might be buried here, is asked to contact Mrs. Leonard GREEN, Jr., 3311 Fairfield Avenue, Shreveport, LA., 71104.

George M. SOWERS, 1821-1900; Nancy Sills Wallace SOWERS, 1833-1913 (third wife of George); Jessie May SOWERS, 1900-1902; Tamsary Anna JOHNSON, 18??-1894; (a child), 1905-1905.

The COLLINS-BOYD Family is a fenced area containing 4 to 6 graves with no given names shown.

DESOTO EXCELLS IN REFINEMENT, EDUCATION

From A TOURIST'S DESCRIPTION
OF LOUISIANA IN 1860

Ed. Crescent-My last letter was from the town of Natchitoches, which is distant from Mansfield, the parish seat of DeSoto, whence I write, fifty-five miles via stage road-fifty-five long and weary miles this dry season, for the road is rough and dusty in the extreme. It is a "ridge road" and running thus along the high lands which are comparatively sparsely populated, the traveler sees few of the improvements of a wealthy and populous parish, for these are mostly located in the bottom lands, where may be found many fine and extensive cotton estates that add many thousands of bales to the yearly, aggregate of the crop returns of Louisiana.

The heavier planters of the parish are Messrs. Henry Marshall, John Marshall, Boykin Witherspoon, Charles Edwards, T.M. Gatlin, E.T. Robinson, Jesse Goodwin, Dr. G.A. Frierson, Major J.J. Grenning, Mrs. Maria Childres, Dr. B.F. Chapman, Henry Morse, Geo. C. Burns, R.T. Johson, John Jordan, H. Phillips, M. Hale, T.P. Hale, Wm. Hale, John Ross, Samuel Ivey, Jesse Ivey, B. Dixon, H. Turner, John and Isaac Murrell, A.M. Chapman, J.W. Munday, Samuel Clark, Mrs. Rochelle, W.T. Fortson, Major Logan, Charles S. Pegues, Thomas Gilmer, George R. Hayden, W. Pitts, D. Eastman, Col. H. Sloan, John W. Reeves, James Hollingsworth, Wm. Crosly, Major Tompkies, L.L. Tompkies, George Eldridge, Dr. Firman, Mrs. Means, Jephtha McCraw, B.W. Pearson, Jas. Nolan, Y.W. Graves and perhaps others, but all of the above can make two hundred bales and some of them quadruple those pretty figures.

DeSoto parish lies between Red river and the Texas line, and borders on the parishes of Natchitoches, Sabine and Caddo. By the Red River and Mississippi route its lowest point of the parish on the former river is something over five hundred miles for New Orleans. It is rapidly increasing in wealthy and population, which it has chiefly drawn and is still drawing from the States of Georgia and Alabama. As indicative of this prosperous increase, the parish will be assessed for the present year at upwards of a million dollars more than for the previous, and the vote will reach nearly eleven hundred, or near two hundred more than heretofore. The population of the parish is about thirteen thousand, of whom near eight thousand are slaves. Its area comprises two hundred and forty-six thousand acres in round numbers, of which some thirty-six or seven thousand are in cotton, and some twenty-eight thousand are in corn. Its valuable lands are about all in private hands, and are held-for the bottom lands, at from fifteen to twenty dollars per acre; the uplands at from five to ten dollars. Among the larger land holders may be mentioned T. H. Patterson and Thomas Hunter, who have from eighteen to twenty thousand acres each. The soil is light, friable and easily tilled, and the labor of "keeping the crop out of the grass" is small compared with what it is in the alluvial lands of the State. The climate and atmosphere partake in a large degree of the dry, pure and healthful peculiarities which characterize those of the uplands of Texas, which the parish adjoins.

In refinement, education and social attributes the people excel, and the educational spirit is, par consequence, strongly abroad among them. In the parish are located several institutes of learning of high standing in the country-liberally endowed, largely patronized and wisely administered. The Mansfield Female College, in this town, occupies a very handsome, spacious and costly brick building, is attended by from a hundred and thirty to a hundred and fifty pupils, who are accomplished in all the abilities and graces of a thorough education by an able faculty at the head of which stands Rev. H. C. Thweatt, as President of the College. This institution is under the patronage of the Methodist Episcopal Church. At the pleasant village of Keachie, twenty miles from Mansfield, is the "Keachie Female College" under the patronage of the Baptist Church; Rev. J. H. Tucker is at the head of its very competent faculty, and an average of a hundred pupils are enrolled for its sessions. At the village of Pleasant Hill, twenty miles from Mansfield, in another direction, the foundations of the "Pierce and Payne College", for males, are just being laid, under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church. A fund of nearly a hundred thousand dollars, already contributed ensures the fruition of this enterprise. At Mansfield there is an independent institution, also for males, which is meritoriously conducted. Public schools, too, are thickly scattered through the parish.

Mansfield, the parish seat, is located nearly in the geographical center of the parish, about seventeen miles from Red River on the east, and near the same distance from the Sabine, on the west. It is essentially an inland town, and is ten miles from the nearest navigable water-which is lake, or Bayou Pierre, on which are found landing places at which goods may be debarked that come by the way of Redriver, from which they are boated seven miles through Grand Bayou, and thus into Bayou Pierre to the Mansfield and general landings, severally known as Smithport, Marseilles, Newport and Augusta at neither of which are settlements of any note, though nears Smithport there is a Catholic chapel, the only one in this Anglo-American parish. The situation of Mansfield is pleasantly rural and retired, on elevated ground, and it is a well-built town of some twelve hundred inhabitants. It is a scattering town, with large gardens or small fields pertaining to most of the residences, which make it all the pleasanter. The prime feature of the town is the female college, which is a very handsome building, and stands upon an elevation that secures it a commanding aspect. The Court-house is a substantial and tasteful brick erection, and several of the stores are creditable in matters of style, extent and workmanship.

(Copies from a hand-out prepared by Raymond Powell, president of the DeSoto Parish Historical Society, available from the office of the DeSoto Parish Clerk of Court.)

NATCHITOCHE PARISH NOTES

By: Fern AINSWORTH

BEULAH METHODIST CHURCH

Beulah Methodist Church was organized on July 23, 1860, by the Reverend B. F. ALEXANDER, a circuit rider of the Methodist Church, with the assistance of most of the members listed as having joined in 1860; and it has never been without a pastor since its organization. The doors were open throughout the terrible Civil War & Reconstruction Period, and for the duration of World War I and II. The first preachers, known as circuit riders, travelled long distances on horseback and served several charges.

Located on Highway 487 between Marthaville and Ajax in Southwest Natchitoches Parish, Louisiana.

ASSOCIATION LENDING LIBRARY EXTENDING SERVICES

Six Southern States are highlighted on the 1987 schedule of the lending library of the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association as announced by Joyce BRIDGES, Librarian.

The library, regularly open at 2:00 P. M. prior to monthly meetings of the Association at the Werner Park Memorial Building, 2617 Corbitt Street, in Shreveport, La., is extending its hours and will be open at 10:30 A. M. on the second Saturday in February, March, May, June, September and November. Books in the rental library are available to members only at a fee of $2.00 per month per book.

On these six days those attending are asked to participate in round table discussions focusing on the designated State of that day. Each is asked to bring a sack lunch and books, periodicals, census records, and material pertaining to that state to share with others. (Be sure your material is plainly marked with your name.)

"In sharing materials and discussing genealogical research resources and problems of each State, we will try to help each other. "Come join us. Share genealogy" says Mrs. BRIDGES. "The lending library is growing each month due to the generosity of our members and friends in donating their no longer needed research material and publications. Occasionally we receive a new book that has been submitted to THE GENIE for review and is a duplicate of one already available at Shreve Memorial Library. We thank you, each one who has been a donor."

THE FRANCIS NAPOLEON BICKHAM CEMETERY

(Located between Longwood, Louisiana and Cross Lake, about 1 mile south of the Blanchard-Furrh Road, on top of a hill and can be reached only by walking. Almost in the middle of Section 13, Township 18 N, Range 16 W. Only six stones were visible at the time we copied (14 Feb 1971). Many large cedar trees in the cemetery were cut down years ago and could account for the disappearance of several headstones. This is a large cemetery, with at least 15 sunken areas which appear to be graves. Possibly many more graves are on this hilltop.

OVER THE EDITOR'S DESK

One of our favorite genealogy columns is "OUR KEYSTONE FAMILIES", written by Schuyler Brossman, P. O. Box 43, Reh-rersburg, PA, 19550. In its 17th year, it appears weekly in two Pennsylvania newspapers.

All queries must have a Pennsylvania connection, include at least one date and should not be more than 150 words. Anyone with Pennsylvania German roots, particularly, should not overlook either the information contained in this column, or the possibilities of making contacts through queries.

Coincidentally, two of the four items concerning family newsletters contained in a recent column of Mr. Brossman's had been sent in from our Ark-La-Tex area.

SHANNON SEARCHERS is a new genealogical surname newsletter published bi-monthly beginning in January 1987, with an annual index in the Nov./Dec. 1987 issue. There will be at least 10 pages. The cost will be $8.50 for six issues. Order from Joyce Shannon BRIDGES, R2, Box 50-I, Keithville, LA, 71074. (Joyce is the queries columnist.)

THE CLOUD FAMILY JOURNAL is published four times a year and the cost is $20 per year, in the year running from 1 July to 30 June. If you are connected with the Clouds, you will find sunshine looking for new "Clouds" and information about them. Write to Betty Cloud FERGUSON, 1617 Bradley Street, Bossier City, LA, 71112.

GLENN GLEANINGS is the name of a newsletter which concerns all branches of the GLENN surname and its allied lineages. This newsletter has a free query column and is published quarterly at a cost of $12.00 yearly. Bette BRENGLE-POOLE, 2203 Aquila's Delight, Tallston, MD, 21047, is our correspondent.

Books on genealogical interest received by your editor either directly from the author or publisher, or as a donation to the annual August Book Fair of the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association are reviewed in the book review column of THE GENIE as time and space permits. Following review all books donated are placed on the shelves of the genealogical room of Shreve Memorial Library. Should a certain title be already available at Shreve Memorial, the duplicate copy is placed in the rental library of our Association for circulation among the membership at a nominal fee. Through the efforts of the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association, several thousands of dollars are donated each year in books and cash to increase genealogical materials available at Shreve Memorial Library. The majority of

of the microfilm available in the genealogical room at Shreve Memorial Library has also been placed there as a result of the efforts over the years of the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association. At its December meeting the Association voted a gift of $2000.00 to purchase additional federal census microfilm, film which should be available to researchers at Shreve Memorial in the near future.

While space does not permit us to include reviews of genealogical surname newsletters in our book review columns, we do receive copies and notices of them from time to time, and realize that contact with these publications is of interest to one researching that particular name. We are, therefore, listing here some of those whose copies have come across our desk.

THE ARMSTRONG BULLETIN BOARD is 10 pages of queries, articles, research aids, book reviews and rare or old documents valuable for Armstrong research. Subscription is $6.00 for 4 issues. Editor is Fred W. FIELD, 1516 Avenida Selva, Fullerton, CA, 92633.

THE BEEBE CONNECTIONS is published quarterly at $8.00 per yr. Queries free to members. Write Sue Brenning WILKINSON, editor, Rt. 1, Box 75, Culbertson NE, 69024.

BREngle BRANCHES includes information on spelling of BRANGLE, BRINGLE, BREngle AND PRINGLE. Contact Charles BREngle, 6619 Pheasant Road, Route 16, Baltimore, MD, 21220.

BUCKLEW TRACES is a continuation of MARY'S PEOPLE - THE BUCKLEWS. Four issues of approximately 50 pages each comprise a subscription at $15.00 plus postage (and tax for Texas residents). Privately published by Gerry GREEN, P. O. Box 777, Nursery, Texas, 77976.

THE CHRISTIAN FAMILY CHRONICLES is a biannual publication devoted to genealogy of families with the surname CHRISTIAN. Queries are free with preference to subscribers. Editor is the well known genealogist and author, Agnes Branch PEARLMAN, 2001 North Westwood Avenue, Santa Ana, California, 92706. $7.50 per year.

COLEMAN WORLD, edited and published quarterly by Fred W. FIELD, 1516 Avenida Selva, Fullerton, CA, 92633 is $6.00 per quarter, 10 pages long, each newsletter. Non-subscribers may contribute one query and participate in the Indexes. A free sample newsletter will be sent on request.

COLLIER COLLATOR is a research quarterly, July to July, $12.00 per year. Sample copies $4.00, applicable on year's subscription, if within thirty days. Contact Collier Clark Publications, P. O. Box 864017, Plano, TX, 75086.

THE FULTON FAMILY LETTER is published quarterly, $8.00 per year, and is available to anyone interested in Fulton genealogy. Articles, photos, group sheets, queries and memorabilia are supplied by readers. Address Robert Fulton, 118 Catocin Avenue, Frederick, MD, 21701.

MACCUBBIN CLAN LINES, $3.00 per issue, may be obtained from Sheila L. MARTIN, editor, 1 Goodman Lane, Pensacola, FL. 32506.

THE JONES OF AMERICA is published 4 issues per volume, $12.50 per volume; $5.00 single issue. Unpublished JONES information from genealogists and family historians is solicited. Services offered free of charge to all, are queries and a referral system of other persons researching the same line through access to family group sheet files. Nancy Jones CORNELL is editor. Order from Inkwell Publications, 1661 Lauranceae Way, Riverdale, GA, 30296.

Abraham, born in Dutchess County, N. Y., married Mary in Rockbridge County, Virginia, in 1780, and their older children were born near Natural Bridge. Moving to Greenbriar County, Virginia, about 1792, their younger children were born on Vandal's Mountain (now Fork Mountain, in Fayette County). While the largest concentration of descendants is still in West Virginia, the newsletter is published by Wayne Vandal MASTERSON, P. O. Box 193, Bull Shoals, AR, 72619. A 1987 family reunion is planned.
