The Genie is published quarterly. Each member receives four issues for each year of membership. All material published in The Genie is compiled and contributed by the members. The Genie invites exchange of periodicals with other genealogical-historical organizations publishing data of general interest. We regret that we cannot exchange with limited family organizations, but invite them to send samples of their publications for a brief review since many of these family organizations are of a great value in information on the family covered by them.

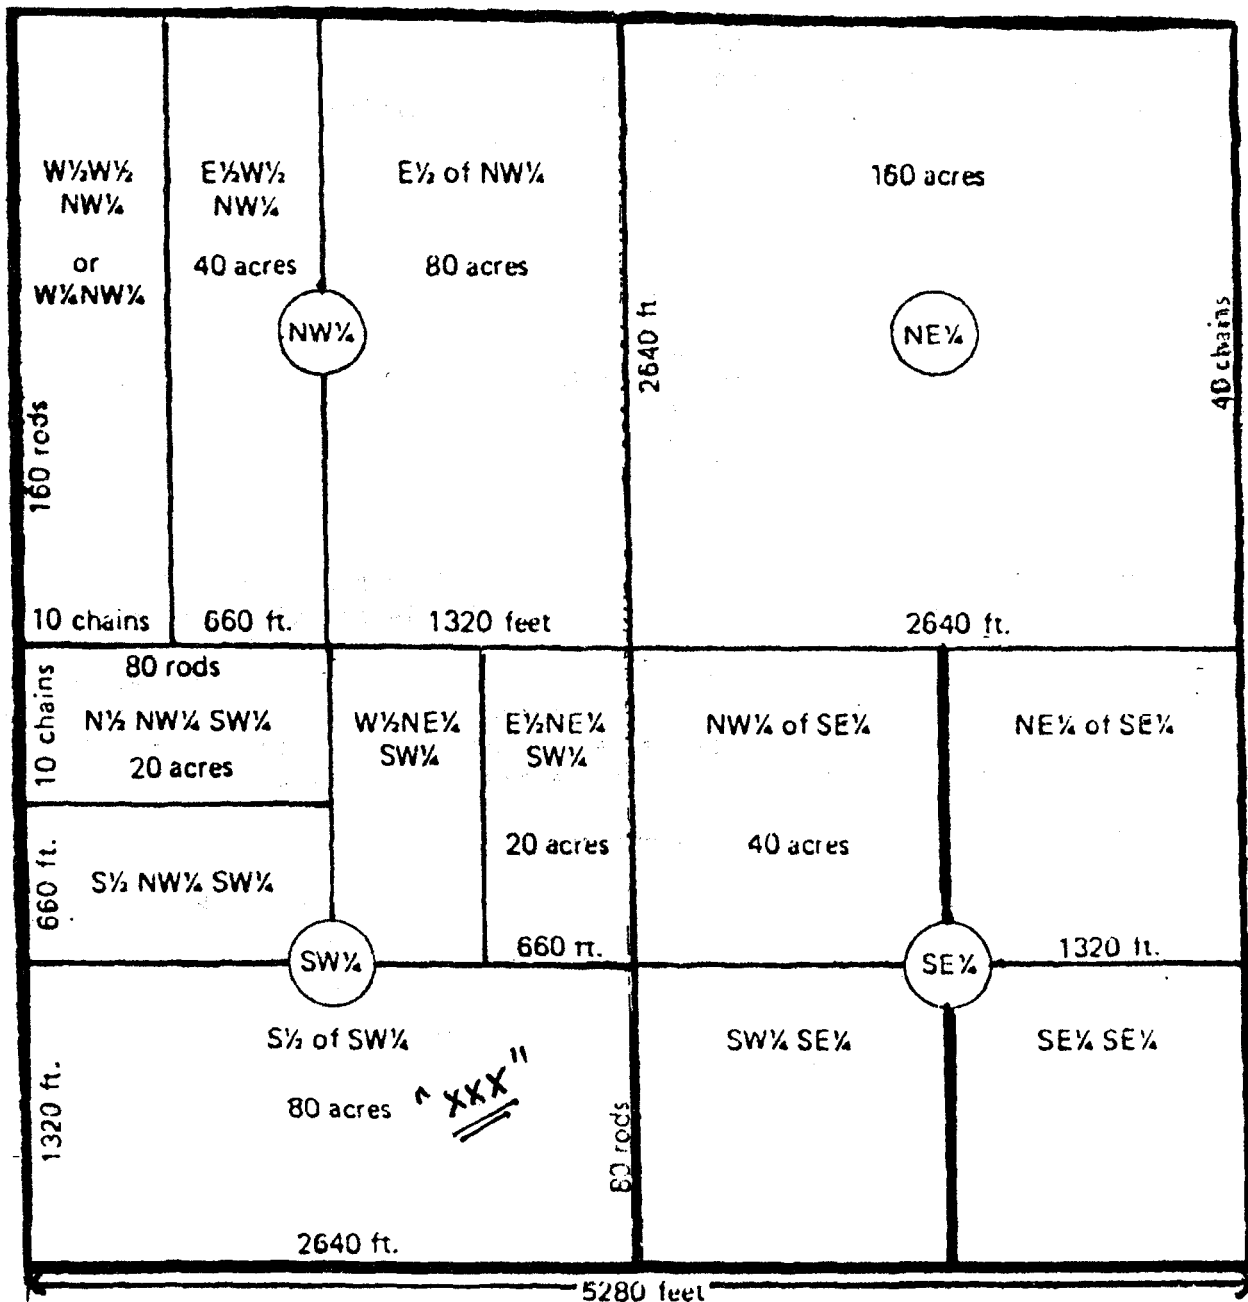

All members of the staff of The Genie are volunteers.

THE VANCE FAMILY CAME FROM SOUTH CAROLINA TO LOUISIANA

Vanceville was once a town noted for big balls and other entertainment. Situated on the Cotton Belt Railroad, it was located in Bossier Parish half way between Benton and Shreveport. It was named for the Vance family who had removed from Greenwood, South Carolina to Louisiana in 1867, two years after the death of Allen Vance, whose large plantation in Louisiana was known as "Palmetto". The clubhouse and grounds of the Palmetto Country Club today occupy land which was once part of that plantation.

It was John Chappel Vance, his mother and younger sister, Laura ("Nina"), who made that move. John Vance was of a large family of Vances of Laurens County, South Carolina.

The first of the name to settle in Laurens County was Nathaniel Vance, a native of North Carolina. Nathaniel was a Revolutionary soldier and fought under General Gates at Camden and not long after was captured by Royalists and lodged in jail in Guildford Court House, now Greensboro, North Carolina, an ordeal from which he never fully recovered.

Nathaniel Vance, Sr., married Mary Dunbar McTier, of Laurens County, May 27, 1788. He died at his home in Laurens County, November 4, 1812. His wife was born March 6, 1769.

The children of Nathaniel Vance and Mary Dunbar McTier, his wife, were Samuel, Frances, William M., David, Nathaniel Carr, Elizabeth, Allen, John, Larkin, John Washington and Joseph Harrison ("Harp") Vance. Elizabeth was born July 24, 1799 and died April 11, 1800; Larkin born October 20, 1806, died March 8, 1909. Nathaniel Carr Vance (February 9, 1798-March 12, 1846), Dr. James Washington Vance (February 12, 1809-October 26, 1868) and Joseph Harrison Vance (July 8, 1813-August 1889) never married. Dr. James Washington ("Wash") Vance died 1868 at the home of a nephew, Dr. Samuel Whitfield Vance, at Buck Hall, Bossier Parish, Louisiana.

At the close of the War Between the States, J. H. Vance had found himself without property because he had invested all of his money in slaves rather than land. Some years later he received a substantial sum from the estate of his bachelor brother, Dr. James Washington Vance, who had removed to Louisiana.

Samuel Vance, the oldest child of Nathaniel and Mary Vance, was born in Laurens County, March 19, 1789; was married March 3, 1818 to Mrs. Eliza Armstrong (nee Kincaid); and died July 13, 1868, within three miles of his place of birth. He served a short time in the War of 1812 in duty along the coast of South Carolina.

Frances Vance, second child of Nathaniel and Mary, was born August 29, 1790, and married William Green, December 20, 1814.

Samuel Vance had married March 3, 1818 the widow Armstrong (nee Kincaid), of the Kincaid family of Fairfield County, South Carolina. Eliza Kincaid Armstrong Vance was the sixth child of Capt. James Kincaid and his wife, Mary McMorris, and was born in 1784. She died November 29, 1827, at the age of forty-three. She was first married to John Armstrong on September 5, 1810, and they had two children, Nancy McLees Armstrong and William McMorris Armstrong. After the death of John Armstrong, Eliza married Samuel Vance and they had two children, Mary Prudence and James Kincaid Vance, of Cokesbury, South Carolina. James Kincaid Vance was usually referred to as "Major Vance". He spent his youth in Laurens County. His uncle, John Vance, married Nancy Wright Watson, the widow of Dr. Elijah Watson, of Laurens County. Dr. Watson was quite wealthy and left a considerable estate to his widow, and their three children. The children were Casper Wistar Watson, died single; Amelia Carolina Watson married Dr. Anthony Fuller, of Laurens; Louisa Laurens Watson married Major James Kincaid Vance; and Biphomia Watson who never married.

Capt. James Kincaid, Revolutionary soldier, had several children in addition to the daughter, Eliza, who married first John Armstrong and after his death, married Samuel Vance and became the mother of James Kincaid Vance and Mary Prudence Vance Sims. One of the daughters was Rebekah Kincaid who married Jonathan Davis. They had several children, one of whom, Harriet Davis, married Dr. James C. Furman, the first president of Furman University after its removal to Greenville.

Major James Kincaid Vance, son of Samuel and Eliza Kincaid Armstrong Vance, attended in 1836 the Greenwood School maintained by the Presbyterians. James Kincaid Vance attended the South Carolina College, married Laurens Louisa Watson, a daughter of Dr. Elijah Watson Jr., and his wife Nancy Wright Watson. Mrs. Watson married second John Vance.

James Kincaid Vance entered Confederate service and served on the staff of General Sam McGowan and later was on the staff of General N. G. Evans. In the last year of the Confederate war he was a tax-in-kind collector for this area.

In 1851, Major Vance was elected a member of the State Legislature from Abbeville county, the other members of the delegation being Dr. J. W. Hearst and Sam McGowan. Major Vance named one of his sons for Dr. Hearst. The year of the death of the first Mrs. Kincaid Vance does not appear in the records. In 1882, Major Vance married the widow of Dr. J. W. Hearst, owner of the large and handsome home near the present Troy and known as "Eden Hall". She died about 1890. In 1893, Major Vance located in Laurens. In the Spring of 1893, Major Vance went to Greenville on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. J. Walter Gray, in that city and from Greenville in the late Fall of that year he went to Baton Rouge, Louisiana, to visit two of his sons living there. He died within a short time after his arrival. He was born Dec. 26, 1818 and was in his seventieth year. He was buried in Springwood Cemetery in Greenville.

Major James Kincaid Vance and his first wife Laurens Louisa Watson Vance were married August 1, 1844. As previously stated she was one of the three children of Dr. Elijah Watson, whose widow married John Vance, of Cokesbury. Major James Kincaid and Laurens Louisa Watson Vance had thirteen children as follows: James Wister Vance born Sept. 16, 1845; Samuel Watson Vance born Nov. 6, 1847; William Washington Vance born June 25, 1849; John Harrison Vance born June 5, 1851; Nancy Eliza (Lillie) Vance born May 5, 1853; Bijah Lou Vance born Mar. 28, 1855; Hearst Vance born Dec. 18, 1856; Norwood Kincaid Vance born Sept. 19, 1858; Mary Amelia Vance born July 1, 1860; Elizabeth Perla (Bessie) Vance born Oct. 17, 1861; Frank Hampton Vance born May 23, 1863; Susan Laurens (Laurie) Vance born Oct 29, 1864 and Alpha Anna Vance born June 26, 1868, died in infancy.

The children of Major John Kincaid Vance and Laurens Louisa Watson Vance married as follows:

Dr. James Wistar Vance married Dec. 2, 1875 Susie Shelby Vance of Memphis. Dr. Vance attended the Cokesbury Conference School and the University of Edinburgh, being one of the group of "three Vance boys", the others being his brothers, Samuel Watson Vance and William Washington Vance. Dan H. Tompkins, also from Cokesbury at the time, and George Johnstone of Newberry, as members of the Southern boys group by Peter Wilson in his "A Southern Exposure". Dr. James Wistar Vance removed to Memphis. The names of the descendants of Dr. James Wistar Vance and Susie Vance are not available.

Samuel Watson Vance, son of Major James Kincaid Vance (Nov. 6, 1847-Aug. 9, 1901) attended Cokesbury Conference School, the South Carolina College, now University of South Carolina, and the University of Edinburgh. He married Mary Caroline Young Nov. 21, 1871.

William Washington Vance (June 25, 1848-Feb. 16, 1900), On his return from University of Edinburgh, went to Louisiana with his brother, Dr. Norwood Kincaid Vance. The latter died in 1906 single in that State. William Washington Vance was a prominent lawyer of Louisiana. He located first in Shreveport and there he lived with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John Chappell Vance, and later removed with them to New Orleans. William Washington Vance married Sydney Ballard in New Orleans in December 1892. She died Feb. 23, 1934. They had two children, William Ballard Kincaid Vance and Alice Shaw Vance. William Ballard Kincaid Vance lived in New Orleans and was unmarried. Alice Shaw Vance married April 10, 1917, Geoffrey Allan Barton, of Assumption Parish, Napoleonville, La., and they had three children, Geoffrey Allan Barton, in service in paratroop service and transferred to Counter Intelligence in Germany; Alice Vance Barton was with the Red Cross in Germany; and William Vance Barton. Geoffrey Allan Barton, Sr., died in 1936.

Nancy Elizabeth Vance, daughter of Major James Kincaid Vance, married Nov. 24, 1875, J. Walter Gray of Greenville, and they had the following children: Harry Gray, Lawrence Gray, Walter Gray and Willie Gray who married Don Linthicum, of Atlanta.

Biphemia (Bigie Lou) Vance, daughter of Major James Kincaid Vance, married April 23, 1879, Zachary Taylor Dobbs.

Mary Amelia Vance, daughter of Major James Kincaid Vance, married first, Jan. 17, 1883, David Griffith Dorrah. They had two children, one died "in infancy", and the other Griffith Vance Dorrah married Richard Mims Sullivan, Jr., of Greenville and they had, Richard Mims Sullivan, III, Mary Vance Sullivan, Laurens Norwood Sullivan, and Griffith Dorrah Sullivan. Mary Amelia Vance Dorrah, daughter of Major James Kincaid Vance, married second, Arthur Lawrence Ewbank in 1897 and they had two daughters, Amy Vance Ewbank married General John E. Sloan of Greenville, and they had a daughter, Lucia Marie Sloan who married Major Horace Brown of Gaffney and they had a daughter, Susan Major Brown. General John E. Sloan was retired and lived in Asheville. The second daughter of Lawrence Ewbank and Mrs. Mary Amelia Vance Dorrah Ewbank, Marie Corinne Ewbank married Charles Hinton, of Flora, Miss. Since the death of Mr. Hinton, Mrs. Hinton and her son, Charles Hinton, Jr. made their home in Ninety Six.

Elizabeth Perla (Bessie) Vance, daughter of Major James Kincaid Vance, married in 1886, Wiley Smith Killingsworth.

Susan Laura Vance (Laurie) daughter of Major James Kincaid Vance, married Dr. William McIntosh Norwood of Greenville.

After the death of his first wife, Samuel Vance (born 1789-died 13 July 1868) married Susan Burch Maddox, born 1790. She died November 25, 1850. They had two daughters, Susan (Sue) C. Vance and Ann E. Vance. The latter, born 1830, never married. Her sister, Susan Corinne, married March 3, 1854, Robert D. Waldrop, of Laurens County, South Carolina. He enlisted in Confederate service, was wounded September 3, 1864, in battle near Berryville, Virginia, and died five days later. He is buried at Winchester. His wife, Susan, died March 5, 1917, at the age of eighty-five years. She and Robert D. Waldrop had two children, Mary Sue, who married James Cobb Moore, and A. Corinne, who married George C. Hodges.

Samuel Vance, after the death of his second wife, Susan Maddox, married third Clarissa Simmons.

Frances Vance, second child of Nathaniel and Mary, was born August 29, 1790 and married William Green, December 20, 1814.

William M. Vance, the third child of Nathaniel and Mary McTier Vance, was born March 6, 1792, and married Sarah Edrington July 20, 1820. At the death of William, his brother John Vance served as administrator of the estate. The legatees were his widow and the following children: Mary F., Sarah C., William L., Martha A., Eliza A., Susan C, all under twenty-one, and N. W. Vance, deceased.

David Vance, fourth child of Nathaniel and Mary McTier Vance, was born March 1, 1794 in Laurens County, married first Elizabeth Edrington, presumably a sister of Sarah. David Vance married second Matilda Tinsley. The will of David Vance was dated September 22, 1870, and is to be found in the records of the Judge of Probate in Laurens County with a codicil dated October 8 and will and codicil filed January 21, 1871. Children of David and Elizabeth appear in the records as Harrison Vance, executor, Rosborough W. Vance and Dr. Samuel Whitfield Vance, both of whom had removed to Louisiana.

Children of David Vance and his second wife, Matilda Tinsley, were: Mary Cornelia, married Dr. M. C. Rivers; Sarah Bell became second wife of Francis Marion Godbold; Permelia Clayton; Elisa Frances (Lyde) married J. W. Copeland of Clinton and had four boys and two girls; Martha Ellen married R. F. Ferguson.

The three sons of David Vance and his first wife, Sarah Edrington, were Dr. Roseborough, Harrison Vance and Dr. Samuel Whitfield Vance, all three who removed to Louisiana and joined a large colony of Vance connections in that state. The first of the South Carolina Vance family to remove to Louisiana was Dr. James Washington Vance, who came to Louisiana about 1841. His nephews, Dr. Roseborough Vance and Dr. Samuel Whitfield Vance later also came to Louisiana.

Dr. Samuel Whitfield Vance, after coming to Louisiana, married first, Mary Boutwell Gilmer, daughter of James Blair Gilmer, who had removed from Georgia to Louisiana. The marriage was in December 1854, at "Plain Dealing" plantation in Bossier Parish, the town of Plain Dealing later being located in that area. Children of this marriage were Sarah (Sallie) Eliza and James Blair Vance, who died in his youth. After the death of his first wife, Dr. Vance married second, a widow, Mrs. Sallie James Gayle, and they had three children, Mary Boutwell Gilmer Vance, Samuel Whitfield Vance, Jr., and James Washington Vance.

Sarah (Sallie) Eliza Vance, was married in 1877, at "Buck Hall" Plantation in Bossier Parish to Samuel Jacob Ziegler, of Cokesbury, South Carolina. He was a son of Major M. C. Zeigler, of Cokesbury, and a grandson of the Rev. Samuel Dunwoody. Samuel Jacob and Sarah Eliza Vance Zeigler had the following children: Mary Lee Zeigler, who married Curtis Scovell of Shreveport, Louisiana; Lavinia (Vinnie) Vance, who married Charles Lathan Gaines and lived in Atlantic Beach, Florida; Sadie Zeigler and Susie Zeigler, both of whom died young. After the death of his first wife, Sarah (Sallie) Vance Zeigler, Samuel Jacob Zeigler married Howell Mackintosh and they had two children: Navy Commander S. J. Zeigler, Jr., and Mrs. George L. Dickson, Greenwood, South Carolina.

Allen Vance, son of Nathaniel Vance and Mary Dunbar McTier Vance, was born in Laurens County January 3, 1803. He married first the widow Gary, of Newberry County, South Carolina. There were no children by this marriage. Allen Vance married second Mary Chappell, also of Newberry County. Mary Chappell was a daughter of John Chappell and Elizabeth (Betsy) Brooks. John Chappell was born in 1795, a son of Thomas Chappell and Delia Chappell. Elizabeth Brooks was a daughter of Elisha Brooks, Revolutionary soldier and officer.

Allen Vance and his second wife, Mary Chappell, were married in 1840 and located in Greenwood, South Carolina, some years prior to the Civil War. Allen Vance accumulated a considerable amount of property there. He died in 1865, in Greenwood. His widow and a son and a daughter removed to Louisiana. Mary Chappell Vance was born in 1823, in Newberry County, South Carolina, and died in Louisiana in 1870.

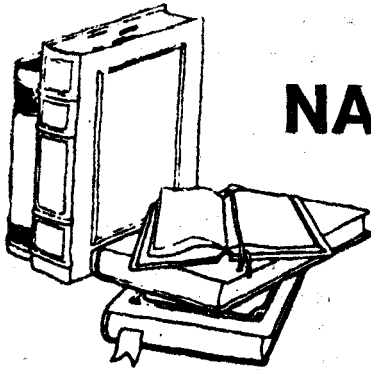

Allen and Mary Chappell Vance had four children: John Chappell Vance, Mary (Molly) Vance, Nina Vance, and Allen Vance, who died young.

The will of Allen Vance, recorded in Abbeville, South Carolina, is dated October 27, 1865. His lands in Bossier Parish, Louisiana were willed to his three children: John Chappell Vance, Mary E. Vance and Laura C. Vance. His wife Mary M. Vance was to receive for and during her natural life one home and lot in the town of Greenwood, South Carolina, in Abbeville County, the lot being stated to contain about twenty-three acres. His widow was also to have the use for her natural life a tract of land near Greenwood in Abbeville County containing 485 acres. The executors were his brothers, Dr. James Washington Vance, of Louisiana, and his son, John Chappell Vance, of Greenwood. The executors were directed to buy a gold watch and chain for each of the three children. Two codicils were made to the will.

John Chappell Vance, son of Allen and Mary Chappell Vance, was born August 25, 1843, in Greenwood, South Carolina, attended the South Carolina College, from which he ran away to enlist in Confederate service. He was a member of Company "F", 2nd S.C.R. (Secession Guards) and family tradition is that his father helped substantially to equip the company when it was formed.

In 1867, two years after the death of his father, John Chappell Vance, his mother and younger sister, Laura (Nina), removed to Louisiana where the Allen Vance estate owned a large plantation known as "Palmetto". On the 30th of January 1872, John Chappell Vance married Helen Ophelia Pratt, daughter of Dorliska Rathbun and Luther Easton Pratt of Minden, Louisiana. Helen was born 14 April 1850 at Overton, near Minden. Her father was a native of Hebron, New Hampshire, and her mother, born 22 August 1815 at Williamstown, Oneida County, New York, was a direct descendant of John Alden and Priscilla Mullins.

BRACKEN CEMETERY REPRESENTS MANY EARLY PANOLA FAMILIES

In 1968, a listing of persons buried in Bracken Cemetery in Panola County, Texas, was taken from grave markers by Bill Randolph and Elmer Stroud. This list was published in the Ark-La-Tex Genealogical Association publication, The Genie Volume 22, First Quarter 1988, Number 1, page 19.

Since 1974, James and Patsy Oliphant of Bossier City, Louisiana, have taken an active interest in this old cemetery. Through conversations with many family members of people buried at Bracken, numerous trips to the Panola County Courthouse and Shreve Memorial Library in Shreveport, and with the cooperation of the Panola County Historical Society, a history of Bracken Cemetery was submitted to the Texas Historical Society along with an application for approval as a Texas Historical Site. This application was approved, the Historical Site Marker was placed, and the Bracken Cemetery was dedicated as a Texas Historical Site in June 1987. Patsy Oliphant is a great-great-grand-daughter of Thomas Bracken on whose land the cemetery originated. An up-dated list of all known graves in the cemetery was compiled.

Bracken Cemetery is at least 130 years old. There are 30 different family names represented on the tombstones. A survey in 1989, showed 83 marked graves, with 25 known graves of infants. Thomas and Mary May Bracken are both buried at Bracken Cemetery according to family tradition, but neither grave is marked. They had a four year old daughter, Susan, who died in 1860, and she, too, is believed to be buried there in an unmarked grave.

The following names were added to the original 1968 list:

HISTORY OF THE BRACKEN CEMETERY

In the piney woods of Panola County, Texas, at the end of a dirt country road next to a beautiful and serene oak grove, lies the old community cemetery that originated on the land once owned by Thomas Bracken. The Bracken Cemetery is located off of Texas Highway 31 between Elysian Fields and DeBerry. Signs are posted and the route is well marked from Highway 31, though it is located "off the beaten path" so-to-speak.

The oldest marked graves in the cemetery, both over one hundred years old, are those of Clarence Liston, the infant son of Perry and Acenia Bracken Liston, buried September 28, 1876, and Charlie Escoe, the ten year old son of L. J. Escoe, buried September 15, 1882 (1) There at least seven known unmarked graves and, no doubt, some unmarked graves that have not been identified due to the age of the cemetery (2) The Thomas Bracken family arrived in Texas between 1835 and 1838. Their second child was born in Alabama in 1835, and the third child was born in the Grand Bluff Community in Panola County, Texas, in 1838. (3) Thomas Bracken's daughter, Lisbon Norcissus, and his son-in-law, Dan Briggs, inherited part of the Bracken property and on July 9, 1891, Dan Briggs deeded one acre of land, "more or less", to the three Trustees of the Bracken Graveyard and their successors in office. (4)

The early settlers in this area listed their places of residence as Elysian Fields, DeBerry (once called Evergreen), Grand Bluff, Pulaski (an early river port and once the county seat of Harrison County), Pleasant Grove (Jaybird), and Bethany (also called Licksillet). Some of the families that settled in this area that are represented in the cemetery are: Bracken, Briggs, Bryan, Cain, Coleman, Coyle, Deutsch, Escoe, Haden, Hodge, Hess, Leech, Liston, Maxwell, McKee, McNair, Mills, Moreland, Parker, Peterson, Slocum, Tiller and Whitaker. Most were farmers but there were other trades represented by carpenters, a blacksmith, a grist mill operator. Many of these families seemed to follow the same migration pattern, coming from the Carolinas, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, and then to Texas. (6)

The first Trustees on record of the Bracken Cemetery are: Perry Liston, L. J. Escoe, and Henry B. Peterson. These are the three Trustees mentioned in the deed from Dan Briggs to the Bracken Graveyard. These three men are somewhat typical of the people that came into Texas and settled this area.

Henry Peterson was born around 1848 in Sweden and emigrated to this country as a young man. He was living in Panola County in 1876, but the exact year of his arrival is not known. He and his wife had at least five children, three of which died young and are buried in Bracken Cemetery. There may have been more children. Henry Peterson listed his occupation as a farmer. (7)

Perry Liston married Acenie Louvenia Bracken, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Polly) Bracken. The Liston's infant son is buried in the oldest known grave in Bracken Cemetery. They also had nine other children. Acenie was known for her ability to care for the sick and, as doctors and medicine were rare, her neighbors and relatives depended on her in their time of need. Perry probably came to Texas in the late 1860s—the exact year if not known but believed to be 1869. The family story goes that he and a Mr. Selman swam the Red River from Louisiana to Texas to escape a posse. The Liston family doesn't know much about his past. (8) He did settle in Panola County and was a well-respected member of his community. Perry's youngest son, Alton, was also a Trustee of the cemetery in his later years until his death in 1978.

L. J. Escoe was a farmer living near Elysian Fields. He was born in Georgia and his wife, Elizabeth Briggs, was born in Tennessee. They went first to Alabama and then to Texas sometime after 1860. L. J. Escoe and his son, Tom, were cotton farmers, and they also had a syrup mill known far and wide for the fine quality of ribbon cane syrup produced there. (9) L. J. Escoe, his wife Elizabeth Briggs Escoe, their son Tom, and Tom's wife Belle Tiller Escoe are all buried in Bracken Cemetery.

This community cemetery has been maintained through the years by members of the various families buried there through semi-annual "graveyard workings". In earlier years, these families would meet at the cemetery early in the morning of the appointed day and work hard all day cutting, cleaning, raking, and clearing. At noon there would be a dinner-on-the-ground that was cooked, brought to the cemetery, and served by the ladies. The cemetery is still maintained today through a similar program. The Bracken Cemetery Association still meets at the cemetery semi-annually on the second Sunday in June and on the second Sunday in September, but these meetings have become mostly business meetings now. The covered-dish dinner is still served at noon and is always the highlight of the meeting. There is always plenty of fried chicken, cornbread, peas, greens, pies, cakes, cobblers, fresh tomatoes, and other good things too numerous to name. I suspect that this part of it is still much the same as it was some one hundred years ago. There isn't much actual work done at these meetings now as it was in the past. A Perpetual Care Fund was established a few years back to ensure that the care and upkeep of the cemetery will continue and a caretaker is now hired to keep the grounds in order all year long.

Officers of the Cemetery Association are elected at the June meeting every two years. There are still three Trustees, as it was in the original Cemetery Association, and there is also a secretary and a treasurer. A set of by-laws is on record at the Panola County courthouse in Carthage, Texas.

THOMAS BRACKEN

Thomas Bracken, believed to be the son of James and Sarah Bracken, was born in 1805 in North Carolina. He married Mary (Polly) May December 28, 1831, in Lawrence County, Alabama. Mary (Polly) May was born in 1813 in Tennessee. Thomas and Mary May Bracken had children: Francis Marion (born 1833), Elijah (1835), George W. (1838), Narcissa (June 21, 1842), Elizabeth (1844), Mathew (1846), Athenia (Cina) (Feb. 6, 1849, Morning N. (1850), Susan (1856) and Josephine (1858).

The Bracken family moved from Alabama to Panola County, Texas between 1835 and 1838—probably around 1836 or 37. Thomas bought 320 acres of land from Daniel Tuttle. Bracken Cemetery originated on this land and the Bracken's 4-year old daughter, Susan, who died in 1860, is probably buried there. There may have been other children that died in their infancy as well.

Francis Marion married Carolina Nichols (she later married Daniel Tuttle), Narcissa married Dan Briggs, Athenia (Cina) married Perry Liston, and Josephine married Franklin Moreland. Elizabeth married Larkin Longshore, Susan died an infant, and no information is available on Elijah, George, Mathew, or Morning.

Thomas Bracken died before 1880, and Mary died sometime after 1880, in Panola County, Texas. Both are buried in Bracken Cemetery according to Family Tradition, but there are no markers or headstones. Some of the older "kinfolks" say that they can remember that there was a cedar tree planted at the head of each of Thomas's and Mary (Polly's) graves.

DANIEL B. BRIGGS

Very little information is available concerning the early life of Dan Briggs. He was born in Tennessee on December 2, 1832. His father was born in North Carolina and his mother was born in Tennessee. Their names are not known.

Dan Briggs was living in Caddo Parish, Louisiana, prior to the Civil War. He was probably living near Bethany, Louisiana. His name does not appear on any Census Records prior to 1870. Dan Briggs, John L. Gill, Justus Woolworth, and Lum Mallory all joined a group formed at Greenwood, Louisiana and they went (probably by steamboat) from Shreveport to New Orleans and enlisted in the Confederate Army. They enlisted in Company H, 2nd Louisiana Infantry (The Atchafalaya Guards) on April 18, 1861. Dan Brigg's Unit was attached to the Army of Virginia and he saw action in several major battles. He was wounded at the Battle of Malvern Hill on July 1, 1862. He was captured at Fredricksberg, Virginia on May 3, 1863, and was paroled in a prisoner exchange May 10, 1864, and remained a prisoner the remainder of the war. He was sent to Belle Plains, Virginia May 18, 1864. Sent to Point Lookout, Maryland and then transferred to Elmire, New York August 15, 1864. He was surrendered by General Robert E. Lee and paroled April 9, 1865 at Appomattox Courthouse, Virginia by the Authority of General Ulysses S. Grant.

Dan Briggs returned to the Bethany Area after the War and was living in Panola County, Texas. The town of Bethany is on the Texas/Louisiana State Line and the Line shifted around several times. He married Lisbon Narcissius Bracken August 31, 1865 and they had the following children: Joseph (1866-1886), Robert (1868-1932), Betty Elizabeth (1871-1911), Allie (1874-1926 and Alfred, called Alf, (1877-1927). He is listed on the 1870 and 1880 Census Records in Panola County, Texas. In 1890 there is no record (all 1890 Census Records burned). In 1900, he was living in Panola County with his daughter and son-in-law Joe and Allie Leach. In 1910, Dan Briggs appears on the census living with his son and daughter-in-law Robert and Lela Briggs in Concho County, Texas. By 1912, Robert, Lela, their twin children, and Dan were all back in Panola County, Texas. Dan Briggs' grandson, Joe D. Haden, married Notie Anna Davis and Dan lived with them for several years. He was living with Joe and Notie in the Spring of 1921 when he walked out on the front porch, put out his hand to catch a post, missed and fell several feet to the ground. He was hurt pretty bac and went to his son's house, Alf Briggs. He died there May 5, 1921.

COYLE

Related Families: McPherson, Hess, Bryan, Slocum, Coleman, Maxwell and Tuttle

James M. Coyle was born in Arkansas in 1827. He married Mary Ann Tuttle born in 1818 in New York. They were married in Panola County Texas, Aug. 30 1849. They had children: Henderson (Richard) (born 1851, Dorinda (1854), Charles (1858), Mary (1860) and Julia (1861).

Richard Coyle was born in Texas in 1851. He married Georgia (Maiden name unknown) born in 1857 in Alabama and they had children: Effie, Ola, Polly, Emma Lee, and Lewis. Richard died before 1897, and was buried at Bracken Cemetery. Georgia Coyle, Richard's widow, married Jack Briggs January 5, 1897 and in 1900 they were living in Panola County with Minnieola, Bertie Lee, Polly and Lewis. In 1910, Georgia Briggs was living with her daughter Effie McPherson, a widow. Effie had four children: Gertrude, Archie, Georgia and Richard McPherson. Georgia is buried next to her first husband, Richard Coyle, in Bracken Cemetery. Effie remarried a Hess and both are buried at Bracken. Minnieola married David Maxwell and Polly married David Slocum. David and Polly are buried at Bracken. Lewis may have died young as there is no information on him.

David and Ola Coyle Maxwell married around 1900 and had children: Louis, Emma Lee, Westley, Samuel C., and Lawson. David and Ola's daughter, Emma Lee, married a Coleman. Emma was born Feb. 18, 1903, and died April 28, 1957, and is buried at Bracken. Her mother-in-law, Carrie Coleman, born Sep 1, 1883 and died Dec. 6, 1917, is also buried at Bracken. Emma Coleman's son Maxwell Coleman is a former Treasurer of the Bracken Cemetery Association.

Daniel Tuttle was in Texas before 1837, and received a Class 1 Land Grant of 1,121 acres of land. He acquired another 4,428 acres from a Mr. Jackson, and Daniel's son, Daniel Tuttle, Jr., received 177 acres of land as a single man over 17 years. All of this was in Shelby County. The Tuttle family came from New York, Daniel Tuttle, Jr., born 1820 in New York married Carolina Nichols Bracken (widow of Francis Marion Bracken). Daniel's two sisters were Mary Ann, who married Richard Coyle, and Elizabeth, who married William Thomas Parker. The Tuttles originally owned the land Bracken Cemetery is located on and all of the land around it.

THE ISAAC DAVIS LINE

Isaac Davis was a resident of Tennessee and was born in 1772, (probably in North Carolina). He was a soldier in the war of 1812. He married Leco Benton and they had five children, Sam Houston Davis being the oldest.

Sam Houston (S.H.) Davis was born in middle Tennessee in 1812. He was a farmer by occupation and came to Texas around 1839 and took up his abode in Harrison County. Seven years later he moved to Upshur County and five years afterward to Wood County, where he remained till six years after the close of "the war". Then he came to Bell County. He served two years in Lock and Lane's First Texas Regiment of Rangers as flag bearer. At the of twenty-five in 1837, he was married to Eliza Evans, daughter of Lemuel Evans of Irish parentage. They had five children: Amanda Jane, S.I., Charlie Floyd, Sam Houston and J.M.

Charlie Floyd Davis was born in Harrison County, Texas December 18, 1841. He had only a limited education, attending school nor more than six months altogether. He was known as a prosperous and prominent farmer of Coperas Cove, Texas in Coryell County. On June 14, 1860, Charlie Floyd married Esper Ann Grant, daughter of Nathan Grant. She was born July 24, 1842 and died February 5, 1911. They had eight children: Wesley, Andrew, Joseph M., Mary Emma, Charlie Floyd, Ida Elisabeth, Alice, and William Sampson. Charlie Floyd was a tall, slender, dark complexioned man with high cheekbones, black hair and dark eyes—he was said to look "just like an Indian". Esper Ann was tall, dark complexioned, and had black hair that she wore pulled back in a bun. When he enlisted in the Army, Charlie Floyd was made First Sergeant and the duties of this position compelled him to do much studying, and thus it was that he secured the greatest part of his education. He was in Company C, First Texas Rangers, Col. Lane, and saw most of his service in Arkansas, Louisiana, and Texas; was in the battles of Prairie Grove, Cane Hill, Mansfield, Hellow Bayou and many others, covering a period of forty-two days. He was disbanded at San Antonio, Texas about May 1, 1865, and he returned to Wood County—a blank as far as finances were concerned. With what miserable facilities he had, he started farming. He made his first two crops with a stray steer. In 1874 he came to Bell County and rented land near Killeen, Texas, for one year. The following year he located in Coryell County and purchased 341 acres of raw land on credit for $5 per acre. He was industrious from the start and began to prosper. He invested his profits in acres under cultivation. He raised mostly small grain for several years then concentrated on cotton and livestock which yielded larger profits. Charlie Floyd sold his Texas property in 1902, and moved out to Roswell, New Mexico. He died April 24, 1903 of cancer of the liver.

Wesley Davis, oldest son of Charlie Floyd and Esper Ann, was born on June 28, 1861. He was about six feet tall, 198 pounds, dark complexion, black hair and dark eyes. He married Martha Matilda Padgett (23 May 1865-5 July 1956) on July 17, 1884. She was just over four feet tall, had blue eyes, black hair and was about 98 pounds. She was a very pretty girl. She wore her hair in curly bangs in front and pulled back into a bun in back. All of her life she never wore anything but the old "Mother Hubbard" style dresses. Martha Matilda was the second child of Samuel Oliver Padgett, a farmer (born on July 1, 1834—probably in Arkansas) and Amanda Kilgore, born in 1839 or 39—probably in England. Martha Matilda's brothers and sister were: William Thompson (Bill, Mary and Lee. Wesley and Martha Matilda had six children: Emma Elizabeth (July 20, 1885), Sara Jane (Sadie) (Dec. 20, 1888), Lela Melinda (Dec. 18, 1890), Notie Anna (Mar. 2, 1900). Wesley worked in a cotton gin, dug water wells with a large auger, and made bricks for a living. He made the bricks by hand using a mule-powered device and pouring the clay in molds, then baking the bricks in the sun. He was working in the cotton gin on day when there was a leak in one of the boilers. While trying to repair the leak he received a drop of scalding water on his ankle. He wore black socks and got blood poisoning from the dye from the socks against the burn on his ankle causing an infection. His wife, Martha, tried to get him to wrap his ankle with a white rag, but he didn't do it. He died within two weeks of the accident from blood poisoning at the age of 42 on Mar. 3, 1903. He is buried at Snyder, Texas. Martha decided to take the children and move out to New Mexico to live with Wesley's father, Charlie Floyd, as they had no means of support. Notie Anna was about 10 years old at this time. Charlie Floyd died within a few months of their arrival and they moved back to Texas. Martha and the younger children lived with various relatives, including the older ones as they married and had families from time to time. Martha took in boarders at one time, washed clothes and quilted to make a living. She was living with her daughter, Sadie, in Winters, Texas, when she died July 1956.

ESCOE

L. J. ESCOE was born July 24, 1829 in Georgia. He moved to Alabama where he married his first wife (name not known) and had two children: Georgia, born 1853 in Alabama and William, born 1858 in Alabama. L. J. (Lindsey J.) Escoe was in Texas before 1867, and married Elizabeth Briggs, born July 24, 1837 in Tennessee. Elizabeth was the daughter of Mary Briggs (name of father not known). On Nov. 11, 1851, Mary Briggs married Robert Cockrell in Caddo Parish, Louisiana.

Elizabeth Briggs married William Rhodes May 8, 1853 in Panola County, Texas and in 1860 they were living with her mother, Mary Cockrell and her sister Amanda Briggs (born 1844 in Louisiana). They were all living next to William Briggs born in 1831 in Tennessee, who married Nancy Fortson (born 1837 in North Carolina) in Caddo Parish, Louisiana, Nov. 10, 1853. Elizabeth Briggs Rhodes married a Boykin between 1860 and 1867 and on July 24, 1867, she married L. J. Escoe in Panola County, Texas. L. J. and Elizabeth Escoe had children: Thomas (born 1868), Alonzo (1870), Dedema (1871), Charley (1873), Salley (1875) and Edward (1878). All were born in Texas. The 1880 Panola County Census showed the Escoe family with the above listed children, Mattie Boykin (1867) who was Elizabeth's daughter by a previous marriage, William Escoe (born 1858) who was L. J.'s son by a previous marriage, and Elizabeth's mother, Mary Cockrell (born 1813). L. J. Escoe died November 12, 1923 and Elizabeth Briggs Escoe died Aug. 1, 1892. They are both buried at Bracken Cemetery and their young son, Charles, born Aug. 21, 1872 and died Sep. 15, 1882 is buried near them.

Thomas Jefferson Escoe, son of L. J. and Elizabeth Escoe was born April 14, 1868, and lived near Elysian Fields, Texas. He married Belle Tiller (born Nov. 22, 1869) on Oct. 12, 1892. By 1897, they had two sons, Thomas Ewell and Lloyd-their first child, a girl, died at birth or soon after. They settled on the old Escoe place and built their own home on land Tom got from his father, L. J. Escoe. The Escoes were cotton farmers, both Tom and his father before him. The cotton had to be planted, chopped and picked and then hauled to Elysian Fields on a mule-drawn wagon to be ginned and hauled to Shreveport, Louisiana to be sold. The Escoes also had a syrup mill and their ribbon cane syrup was known far and wide. Tom Escoe was a strong and robust man who was proud of his strength and was feared by many for his bone-crushing grip and powerful handshake. He evidently had a good sense of humor too, as evidenced by a story Notie Haden told her daughter and son-in-law, Jimmy and Patsy Oliphant.

Notie said that she and her husband, Joe, were living on the Escoe place farming on shares after Tom's first wife died and before he re-married. She said, "He wanted to get-shut of us and he told me he was going to whip Joe." I said "Why are you going to whip him" and he said "I'm just going to whip him", so I told him "No, you're not-you're not going to whip Joe". We were out shooting at targets with shotguns, and Tom told me to have a contest to see who could shoot the best-me or him. Well we set up some bottles and he missed his and I hit all of mine (I was using Joe's shotgun and he had his own). Tom said, "Well you won so I guess I won't whip Joe". We had a shoot-out and I won.

Belle Tiller Escoe died Oct. 6, 1907, and is buried at Bracken Cemetery. Tom married Berdie Westmoreland after Belle's death. Tom Escoe died January 15, 1954 and is buried next to his first wife, Belle, at Bracken Cemetery.

Alonzo Escoe, son of L. J. and Elizabeth Escoe married Annie (maiden name unknown) in 1895. They had an infant son born and died the same day and a son Thetus L., born Aug. 14, 1898, and died April 15, 1901, that are both buried at Bracken Cemetery. The 1900 Panola County Census shows Alonzo and Annie with their baby son Thetus living near Alonzo's father, L. J., and L. J.'s third wife, Virginia, Tom and Belle and their family and Edward Escoe (Alonzo and Tom's brother) with wife Bessie and young son Willard E., born June 1898.

TILLER

Belle Tiller was born the oldest child of George Carter Tiller and his first wife, Martha Crenshaw. The name was derived from Isabella as she was named for Issabella, a sister of her father who died a few years earlier at age 14. Belle attended school at the Mount Zion and Jay Bird Schools and she became a member of the Mount Zion Methodist Church. She probably met her future husband, Tom Escoe, at DeBerry, where he was a member of the Baptist Church, but the Escoes lived near Elysian Fields. Belle and Tom married in 1892 in Panola County and settled on the old Escoe Place. Belle joined the DeBerry Baptist Church but they continued to reside in Elysian Fields as long as they lived. When their first home was partially destroyed by a tornado, they rebuilt the house and enlarged it. In 1895, Belle's mother died and her oldest brother, Albert came to live with them and work for them. By 1897, the Escoes had two children, Thomas Ewell and Lloyd. Their first child, a girl, was either born dead or died soon after birth.

Belle had some musical talent and her father gave her a pump organ before her marriage. She often played sacred hymns for her own enjoyment and for the pleasure of her family and friends. Belle Escoe's death in 1909, when she was about 40 years old, was a great sorrow for her family and friends. She left behind two young sons, Ewell, 15, and Lloyd, 13, and she was buried in Bracken Cemetery on her Brother Albert's Place. Not too many years after her death, her youngest son, Lloyd died. He had been teaching school in the Galloway Community near Deadwood, when he suffered an attack of appendicitis. Since there was no fast means of transportation, he was put on a log train to try to get him to a doctor, but they did not reach the doctor in time. He was buried with his mother in Bracken Cemetery.

A neighbor recalled that Belle was of medium height, slim, enjoyed good health, had a good sense of humor, and that she loved her two little boys dearly. She had an even temper and was faithful to her church and to her family.

The land around the Bracken Cemetery is still owned by the Tiller family. The Tiller deed recorded in the Panola County Courthouse sets aside the land occupied by the Bracken Cemetery.

BURGESS MORGAN HADEN

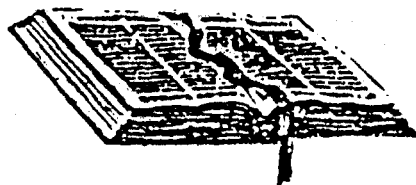

Burgess Morgan Haden, the son of Joseph B., and Emily Francis Perkins Haden, was born August 22, 1858, in Keatchie, DeSoto Parish, Louisiana. On December 26, 1889, in Panola County, Texas, he married Betty Elizabeth Briggs. She was the daughter of Dan Briggs and Lisamon Narcissus Bracken. Both Burgess and Betty were christened in the Morman Church. They had the following children: Emma Narcissus, Joseph Daniel, Herman Hoyt, Roberta, Hollis, Thurman Hayward, Ruby Lee, Louise, James Hilliard, J. B. (Louise died at birth). Burgess was a farmer and he farmed on shares mostly. He ran a grist mill each year when the season to grind corn came in and the rest of the year he mostly fished. He was an avid fisherman and caught some very large catfish in his time. Betty Briggs Haden died April 1, 1911 (just about a year after the birth of her last child, in Carthage, Panola County, Texas. Burgess died September 20, 1944 in Marshall, Harrison County, Texas, while living with his son, Herman Hoyt Haden. Both Burgess and Betty Haden are buried at Bracken Cemetery in Panola County, Texas.

JOE DANIEL HADEN

Joe Daniel Haden, the son of Burgess Morgan and Betty Briggs Haden, was born July 10, 1892, in Panola County, Texas. Joe only attended school through the second grade and he left home at an early age. He worked at a saw mill operating a planer when he was only eight years old. He farmed on shares,

BIBLE RECORDS

FRIERSON FAMILY BIBLE

The earliest event recorded in the Frierson Family Bible is the birth of Thomas Screven, son of Thomas and Eleanor Screven, born Tuesday morning, the 16th of August 1774. The Screven family then lived at Charles Town, later to be known as Charleston, South Carolina. According to a marriage notice published in the South Carolina and American General Gazette, the marriage of his parents, Thomas Smith Screven and Eleanor Hart, had occurred 16 March 1770, also at Charleston.

Thomas Screven married Mary Ann Suzannah Smith, Wednesday afternoon, 21 December 1803. This is the earliest marriage recorded in the Frierson Family Bible. Their daughter, Martha Eleanor Screven, born 21 November 1814 at Charleston, was married 25 November 1846, in Dallas County, Alabama to Dr. George Philip Frierson, son of John and Eliza Frierson, of St. John's Berkley, Charleston District. The Friersons thence moved to northwest Louisiana and engaged in planting in an area now known as Frierson in DeSoto Parish.

Dr. Frierson had first married the eldest daughter of Thomas and Mary Ann Screven, 20 October 1830. By her, he had seven children. On the death of his first wife, 19 November 1844, he married her sister, Martha. Eight children were born to this union.

Much history of this family is to be found in Our Family History, compiled by Annie Elizabeth Miller and published by J. W. Burke Company of Macon, Georgia in 1931; in The History of The Hart Family of Warminister, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, by W. W. H. Davis, published at Doylestown, Pennsylvania in 1867; and in Genealogy of the Cutts Family In America, compiled by Cecil Hampton Cutts and published in 1892 by Joel Munsell's Sons, Albany, New York.

Important events which occurred in this family were carefully recorded through the years in a family Bible now in the possession of descendant, Clarence N. Frierson, who lives on the original Frierson plantation in DeSoto Parish and whose address is Route 1, Box 236, Shreveport, Louisiana. Entitled The Self-Interpreting Bible Containing The Sacred Text of the Old and New Testaments by the Late Rev. John Brown, Minister of the Gospel at Haddington, this second American edition was printed in April of 1806, by Sage and Clough for Robert McDerment and sold at his Book Store, 248 Pearl Street, in New York City, N. Y.

While the events recorded in the Bible comprise numerous pages, they are re-arranged and reprinted as consolidated under the headings of births, deaths and marriages.

FINDING ANCESTORS IN MILITARY RECORDS

How well do you know your history? There have been a number of wars and/or minor engagements or disturbances in which the United States has participated. If you learn the dates of the lesser-known wars as well as the major engagements it may help you find an ancestor. Always check for military records even though you doubt that an ancestor served. Match the date in the listing below with the numbered event in the right-hand column.

- A. 1775-1783.....1. Toledo War, between Michigan & Ohio
- B. 1786-1787.....2. War with Great Britain
- C. 1792-1794.....3. Know-Nothing disturbances
- D. 1798-1800.....4. War of the Revolution
- E. 1801-1803.....5. War with France
- F. 1812-1815.....6. Indian Wars-Oregon, Idaho, California & Nevada
- G. 1817-1818.....7. Ute Indian campaign-Colorado & Utah
- H. 18328. Korean Conflict
- I. 1835-1836.....9. Dorr War, Rhode Island
- J. 1838-1839.....10. Whisky Insurrection, Pennsylvania
- K. 1840-1842.....11. World War I
- L. 1846-1848.....12. Nez Perce campaign
- M. 1850-1860.....13. Civil War
- N. 1861-1866.....14. Black Hawk War
- O. 1865-1868.....15. War with Spain
- P. 1872-1873.....16. Shay's Rebellion, Massachusetts
- Q. 187617. Vietnam War
- R. 187718. The Tin Horn War, Texas & Mexican border
- S. 1879-1880.....19. Boxer Rebellion
- T. 1891-1893.....20. Seminole War, Florida
- U. 1898-1899.....21. Patriot War
- V. 190022. World War II

The following may also be used as a guide when searching for military records of wars and engagements:

IF BORN BETWEEN	WAR INVOLVED IN	DATES OF WARS
1626-1656	Bacon's Rebellion	1676
1639-1743	Intercolonial War	1689-1763
1713-1743	Pontiac's Rebellion	1763-1765
1720-1763	American Revolution	1775-1783
1740-1791	Indian Wars	1790-1811
1762-1794	War of 1812	1812
1762-1812	Blackhawk War	1832
1796-1828	Mexican War	1846-1848
1806-1849	Civil War	1861-1865
1848-1880	Spanish American War	1898

The dates of birth years are approximate. Occassionally an under or over aged person may be found. During the Civil War, ages of the participants ranged from 10 year old drummer boys to men well up in years.

Records for the participants in these wars may be found in the National Archives with the exception of engagements prior to the American Revolution and for some records of the Confederate States of America. Since there was no United States government before 1775, records for these wars must be searched for in state, county and city records.

CZECH RESEARCH

Genealogical research at the Czechoslovak Archives can be done through the Czechoslovak Embassy in Washington, D. C. The Embassy transmits the requests for research to the appropriate archives in Czechoslovakia and renders the reports from Czech. Archives back to the applicants in the U. S. A.

Persons who want searches of old Czech. records such as birth, death and marriage for the purpose of compiling family histories, should apply for the same through the Consular Division of the Embassy of the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic, 3900 Linnean Avenue, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20008.

The fee for searches is figured on the time spent, $12.00 per hour.

Applicants are asked to make an advance deposit of $30.00 by money order payable to Czechoslovak Embassy and the fee will be adjusted when the results of the search are known.

BOSSIER PARISH

MARRIAGES 1875-1877

The following is a continuation of marriage records copied by Ethel Krause from Marriage Books "D" and "E" of Bossier Parish, Louisiana. The original record books are in the Office of the Clerk of Court of Bossier Parish, Benton, Louisiana 71006. They have been microfilmed and these copies are available on microfilm at Shreve Memorial Library, Shreveport, Louisiana, and from the LDS Family History Library at Salt Lake City and from its many branch libraries.

worked as a carpenter and cut cross-ties from oak logs with a broad ax by hand and sold them to the Railroad, as well as other odd jobs he could get. He married Notie Anna Davis on February 18, 1912, at the Old Bethel Camp Meeting Grounds. They were married by a circuit preacher. Joe was farming on shares for his Aunt Cenie (Ascenia Liston) when he and Notie married. Notie and her mother and her brother, Bud, came to East Texas from Snyder, Texas to live with Notie's sister, Lela and Rob Briggs. They were living on the old Black farm near Sabine River near Gill Community and 8-Mile Creek on the old Marshall-Carthage Road in a four-room house. Joe and Notie married only four weeks after they first met and moved into a log house on the Liston farm. Joe's Aunt Cenie made arrangements for credit for them at the old general store in Lickskillet, on the Panola/Harrison County Line. They bought a year's supply of groceries, a dresser, two iron bedsteads, and a few other household items to set up housekeeping for $89. They borrowed two wagons and teams to move and Joe and Notie rode in one of the wagons. Aunt Allie Leach gave them two pie pans and a cake for a wedding gift (the only gifts they received). They ate the cake on their way to their new place and Notie's youngest daughter, Patsy, still has the two pie pans. Joe and Notie had the following children: Betty Mae, Mattie Lee, Anna Marie, Jodie, Floyd Eugene and Patsy Ruth.

Shortly after they were married, Joe and Notie moved to Tom Escoe's farm three miles from Elysian Fields, Texas. Their first child, Betty Mae, was born here. They moved to the Patton Farm, then to a Saw Mill near New Salem where Joe worked on the sawmill machinery. Their second child, Mattie Lee was born here. They moved to the Lawson Saw Mill, also near New Salem, and their third child, Anna Marie was born here. They moved to the Majors farm when Marie was 9 days old and farmed for a year. This year at the Majors Farm near Rock Hill Community was their last year of farming on shares and their share that year was six wagon-loads of corn and five bales of cotton. They sold the cotton and moved their three wagon-loads of corn and five hogs that they owned to Beckville, Texas, where Joe worked as a mechanic in a garage. They moved to Marshall, Texas and Joe worked as a mechanic in a garage across the street from the First Methodist Church. He worked there for two years, ran a filling station for a while on the old Dallas/Shreveport Highway, and bought the Hilltop Garage on West Houston Street about 1925, and ran that for several years before going out of business. After that he worked at various garages around town until he retired-the last mechanic job he had was with Post-Oliphant Motor Company, the Studebaker Dealership in Marshall.

After Mr. Joe retired he worked for a while at Barton's Bicycle Shop repairing lawn mowers and he operated his own lawn mower repair shop for a while. Joe and Notie lived in Marshall on Willow Street, Hank Street, Young Street, and Morrison Street. Their three younger children-Jodie, Floyd and Patsy were born in Marshall. Floyd and Patsy were both born on Young Street. Joe and Notie raised six children, some of Joe's younger brothers and sisters, and various other relatives that didn't have any other place to live.

Mr. Joe, as he was called, was well-known on Caddo Lake. He was a duck hunter and fisherman and in his younger days, he was quite a bird-hunter (Birds and quail or Bob-White in the South are the same thing). Hunting and fishing were Mr. Joe's great love in life and he was very good at it. There are many stories about Mr. Joe's hunting and fishing experiences and he had the reputation on Caddo Lake of being somewhat of a character. Mr. Joe hunted ducks when there were no limits and live decoys were used. He could have been a "market hunter" if he had so desired. He once had an extension made for his 12-gauge shotgun because five shells in the magazine weren't enough- he fixed it to take nine. One of his last duck hunts he was really upset with himself because he fired three shells to get just one duck-"I guess I'm getting too old" he said. He was almost blind at that time and was shooting mostly by the sound of the duck's wings as they came in to the blind.

Joe Haden died February 29, 1968, in Marshall, Texas, while living on Morrison Street. He died of hardening of the arteries. When Mr. Joe died he had 23 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Notie Haden died at age 91 while still living at her Morrison Street address in Marshall on September 14, 1984. She was visiting her oldest daughter in Longview, when she died. Joe and Notie Haden were both members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (The Mormon Church).

KELLEY

John W. Kelley born in 1835 in North Carolina, married Ursula (maiden name not known) who was born in 1832 in Alabama. They appear on the 1860 Panola County, Texas Census with a son, William, born in 1859 in Alabama. The 1870 Panola County Census shows John W. Kelley and wife, Armenta, born 1842, in Alabama, with children: William (born 1859), Henry (1866), Joseph (1868) and James born 1870. William is apparently John's son by his first marriage. He was born in Alabama. The last three children were born in Texas. Armenta is listed as "Minter". The 1880 Census adds children Edgar (1873), and Walter (1875) but doesn't list James (he probably died an infant). It also lists Hattie born in 1879. John W. Kelley died before 1887 and Armenta Kelley married John Jackson Briggs (Called J. J. and Jack) December 21, 1887. Jack Briggs married Georgia Coyle in 1897, so Armenta died before that time. On the 1900 Panola County Census Armenta Kelley's son, Ed, who was 28 years old was living with Jack Briggs' son, Thomas Briggs.

William Kelley, born in Alabama in 1859, the son of John W. and Ursula Kelley, married Molly (maiden name unknown) born in 1861 in New York. They had children: Corrie (born 1883), Hubert (1885), Ernest (1887), Joe (1891), Carol (1893), Mary (Mar. 18, 1895-Aug. 9, 1989-buried Bracken Cemetery), and Alepha (1898).

LEECH

J. A. Leech was born in 1810 in South Carolina and his wife, Margaret was born in 1810 in Kentucky. They were living in Texas by 1851, and the Panola County Deed Book C shows that P. H. and Julia Ann Haskins sold Margaret A. Leech 280 acres nine miles S.W. of the Sabine River in December 1852. The lack of her husband's name of the deed indicates that he might have been deceased at that time. The tradition in the Leech family was that every first born son be named Joseph. J. A. and Margaret A. Leech had the following children: Joseph-did not move to Texas, and some say he stayed behind with relatives and was known as Joe Leech Babcock; Cynthia Ann married John Forsyth Oct. 5, 1850-she is remembered as Kate; Margaret Ugenia born in Mississippi in 1834 married John Stone July 6, 1852; Intha was born in 1837 in Alabama and married Virgil Metcalf May 3, 1855; Sarah E., was born in 1839 in Alabama-she was also called Annie; John A., was born in 1842 in Mississippi and married Ellen S. Callahan July 29, 1865-they later moved to Oklahoma; D. W. married Martha Mills December 12, 1865 in Panola County, but he is not mentioned in family records so may or may not be a son of J. A. and Margaret Leech; Francis was born in DeSoto Parish, Louisiana in 1846-may have been the Jane Leech who married John Richardson and had three children; Levi Washington Leech born July 21, 1838 in Lawrence County, Alabama and married Celia Ann Carter. Family tradition has it that Joe and Margaret were both Baptist and that they are buried in "the Old Bracken Cemetery" near Elysian Fields.

Levi Washington Leech was born July 21, 1838 in Lawrence County, Alabama, the son of J. A. and Margaret A. Leech, who came to Panola County in 1851. He enlisted in the 10th Texas Cavalry in 1861, and served four years in the Army of Tennessee with Generals Beauregard, Bragg, Johnston and Hood (Infantry) and participated in all the major battles. He returned home in June 1865. He worked all of his life as a builder and carpenter and many of the fine homes in Carthage, Texas were his handiwork. He married Sela (Cecelia Ann Sara Jane) Carter June 7, 1866. She was born April 9, 1849, the daughter of Perry and Elizabeth F. Johnston Carter. Their fourteen children were all born in Carthage and one died in infancy. They were: Joseph Perry, born January 21, 1869, who married Allie Briggs; Intha Parthena (Joseph Perry's twin) who was a physician in Bethany and a graduate of Baylor; Arrominta Franklin, born Nov. 10, 1870; Olive Eldora; Robert Edward, born Feb. 9, 1874; Margaret Elizabeth, born Oct. 19, 1875, called Maggie; Leanah Viola, born Jan. 26, 1878; Cecelia Annie, born Apr. 23, 1880; Nellie Emma, born Aug. 3, 1882; Kate Forsythe, born Apr. 21, 1884, and married James Madison Peterson of Elysian Fields Jan. 5, 1902; Mary Eliza, born May 18, 1887; Saidee Rebecca, born Mar. 4, 1894; Christopher Hardy Buck, born Feb. 9, 1890. In 1901, the Leech family moved to Arleston and Sela died there in July 1903. Levi Washington Leech died May 14, 1924, and is buried in Halsey Cemetery in West Monroe, Louisiana.

Joseph Perry Leech was born January 21, 1869, the son of Levi Washington and Sela Ann Carter Leech. On September 12, 1893, he married Allie Briggs, born September 12, 1874, the daughter of Dan and Narcissis Bracken Briggs. Joe and Allie are listed on the 1900 Panola County Texas Census with their daughter, Josephine and her father, Dan Briggs, and his brother, Hardy C. Leech, are living with them. Joe and Allie had children: Josephine, Willie, Luther, Louise and Viola Mae. Notie Haden related to the family that when she and her husband Joe were married in 1912, they started out farming on shares for "Aunt Allie". Allie Leech died Feb. 8, 1926. It is not known when Joe Leech died.

LISTON AND McNAIR

There is little information available as to the ancestry of Perry Liston. His father was born in Virginia and his mother was born in Mississippi. Perry Liston was born December 25, 1848. Perry came to Texas, year unknown, but probably around 1869. The family story goes that he and a Mr. Selman swam the Red River from Louisiana to Texas a couple of jumps ahead of posse. Perry married Acenie Louvenia Bracken December 14, 1869. Acenie was born February 16, 1849, and was the daughter of Thomas and Mary May Bracken. Acenie was called Miss Cenie or Aunt Cenie by all who knew her in later years. She was well known for her ability to care for and doctor the sick and, as doctors and medicine were rare, her relatives and neighbors came to depend on her.

Perry and Acenie were the parents of ten children: W. T. (Oct 19, 1870-June 21, 1939), Rosa M. (Aug. 28, 1873-July 16, 1945), Clarence D. (Sep. 22, 1875-Sep. 28, 1876), Walter A. (Aug. 18, 1877-Aug. 14, 1965), Samantha E. (Jan. 5, 1880-Dec. 30, 1969), Levi (Lee) (Apr. 15, 1881-Jan. 15, 1939), Jessie (Apr. 17, 1884-Apr. 21, 1954), Mettie L. (Apr. 11, 1886-Aug. 19, 1978), Dewitt Talmadge (June 8, 1889-Dec. 1, 1935) and Alton P. (Oct. 8, 1891-Feb. 5, 1978.)

The oldest marked grave in Bracken Cemetery is that of their son, Clarence D. Liston (Sep. 22, 1875-Sep. 28, 1876). Perry Liston was one of the first Trustees of Bracken Cemetery. Perry Liston died December 23, 1897 of an infection on his leg from an accident. Acenie Bracken Liston died January 7, 1934 of pneumonia. Both are buried at Bracken Cemetery.

Perry and Acenie first appeared on the 1870 Census for Panola County, Texas living next to Dan and Narcissia Bracken Briggs. They had no children. The 1880 Panola County Census indicates they were living near Mary Bracken, Acenie's mother, and they had children William, Rosa, Walter, and Samantha.

Alton P. Liston was born October 8, 1891, and was the youngest of Perry and Acenie Liston's ten children. He married Emma Eunice Payne and they were the parents of four children: Margie Lou (Jan. 19, 1917), Richard Keith (Feb. 12, 1921), Perry Alton (June 8, 1924), and Myra Nell (April 10, 1928). Alton Liston was a Trustee of Bracken Cemetery from the time he was a young man until just prior to his death in 1983. Alton's son, Richard, is presently a Bracken Cemetery Trustee. Nell, the youngest child of Alton and Eunice Liston, married Ray Dupriest and lives in Beckville, Texas. Nell supplied the Liston Family History that is presented here.

Mettie L. Liston, eighth child of Perry and Scenie Liston, was born Apr. 11, 1886, and married Wesley Garvin McNair, who was born November 30, 1880. Their children were: Hugh (July 24, 1912), Hazel (July 11, 1914), Hallie (Apr. 12, 1917), Harlan (Jun. 6, 1919, Hilton Harding (May 8, 1922 and Alys Edmon (Sep. 2, 1924). Wesley McNair died June 16, 1959, and Mettie Liston McNair died October 19, 1978. Both are buried at Bracken Cemetery.

Hugh McNair, son of Wesley and Mettie McNair, born July 24, 1912, died in 1981, a World War II Veteran is buried at Bracken Cemetery.

Hazel McNair, daughter of Wesley and Mettie McNair, married Kenneth M. Mills, September 26, 1910, and they were the parents of two children: Billie Jeanene (Aug. 31, 1933) and Richard Wesley (Oct. 7, 1935). Kenneth M. Mills died September 28, 1979 and is buried at Bracken Cemetery.

MORELAND

George Moreland was born in 1859, in Alabama and his wife Cora L. Parker was born in 1863 in Texas. Their children were: George W., Jr., (Oct. 1882), Annie (Feb 1886), Sallie (Sep. 18, 1889-Jan. 2, 1891), Sossolina (?) (Jun 1893), Mills (Apr. 1895), William (Nov. 1897), Bufford (Sep. 30, 1900). Sallie and Bufford, infant children of George W. and Cora L. Moreland, died very young and are buried at Bracken Cemetery.

Elizabeth Moreland was the mother of George. She was born in 1816 in Tennessee. They apparently came to Texas after 1869, and Elizabeth's husband died by 1900, shortly after reaching Texas. Elizabeth is on the 1900 Panola County, Texas Census as the head of the household and living with her children: P. A. (1846), John (1849), Franklin (1853), Mary (1855), Elizabeth (1858), George (1859, Julia (1867 and William (1869). All were born in Alabama. Franklin married Josephine Bracken December 13, 1874, daughter of Thomas and Mary Bracken. George W. married Cora L. Parker.

PARKER

William Thomas Parker was born in 1827 in Alabama. He married Elizabeth B. Tuttle (born in 1827 in New York) in Panola County, Texas on October 6, 1849.

They had children James (1851), Icefine (1854), Mary (1855), Sara (1857), Aterman (or Dorinda) (1859), Cora L. (1861), Johnathon (1864), William H. (1866) and Prudue C. (1867). On the 1850 Panola County Census there was a 5 year old little girl named Ann Parker living with them.

Cora Parker married George Moreland around 1881, and in 1900 Betty and Evelyn Parker are living with George and Cora.

William Thomas Parker died July 21, 1883, and he is buried in Bracken Cemetery.

PETERSON

Henry B. Peterson was born in Sweden in 1848, and both of his parents were born in Sweden. He married Francis E. Moreland May 6, 1875. She was born in 1852 in Alabama and was probably the daughter of Elizabeth Moreland. Elizabeth showed up on the 1870 Texas Census as being 54 years old (born in 1816) and was born in Tennessee. She listed children: P. A., John, Franklin, Mary, Elizabeth (Francis Elizabeth), Georgia, Julia and William all born in Alabama. Franklin married Josephine Bracken, daughter of Thomas and Mary May Bracken. Henry and Francis (called Elizabeth) had children: Wills (1876), John (1878), James M. (1881), Peter E. (Aug. 4, 1883-Oct. 23, 1889), Alla F. (May 1884), Oscar W. (Aug. 1885), Carl Clifton (Oct. 7, 1887-Jun 24, 1899), George E. (Aug. 1889), W. H. (Nov. 4, 1892-Nov. 12, 1892), Anne E. (1893), Joseph (Jan. 1896), Mary M. (Aug. 1898). Three of the Peterson children, Peter E., Carl Clifton, and W. H. all died real young and are buried at Bracken Cemetery. The mortality rate for babies and young children must have been high in these early years in East Texas from the number of babies and children buried at Bracken. H. Peterson is listed as one of the first Trustees of Bracken Cemetery. The 1900 Panola County, Texas shows Henry and Elizabeth Peterson with 8 of their 12 children and indicates three died.

James Madison Peterson married Kate Forsyth Leech on April 21, 1884. His home was listed as Elysian Fields and they were the parents of 10 children.

There is no record of what happened to Henry and Elizabeth Peterson.

SYPERT
DWIGHT

Zackary (Zack) SYPERT's induction papers state Zack was enlisted by Lt. KING 15 Feb 1865, as a Pvt in Capt. A. J. CAMERON's 4th LA Field Battery K Co 16, C Battalion LA Light Artillery CSA. "Soldier's Sick Furlough" states: parolled home 6 July 1865 (sic) for 60 days as "unfit for duty" until health was recovered. Described as age 17, dark hair, eyes & complexion, 5'11" tall. He was a drummer boy and one duty was to call the muster roll. I have requested info from Austin, TX Archives, LA Archives and Hill College, Hillsboro, TX. All returned negative answers. How then can I learn where Zack served and why there is no record? Syble SYPERT DWIGHT, 6520 Allena Lane, Ft. Worth, TX 76118.

HANDFASTING

According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, "handfasting", was an Old English synonym for betrothal. Later it was known as a temporary marriage at one time common in Scotland. The only ceremony was the verbal pledge of the couple while holding hands. (The Anglo-Saxon word "handfoestnung" was interpreted as "pledging ones hand.") The pair thus handfasted were, in accordance with Scottish law, entitled to live together for a year and a day. If then they so wished the temporary marriage could be made permanent; if not, they could go their separate ways without reproach. The child, if any, would be supported by the party who objected to further cohabitation.
